Parker Young

8 p.m. on CW William & Kate's Royal Anniversary

This new one-hour special celebrates the 10th wedding anniversary of the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge, tracing their lives together from their days as college sweethearts to their wedding of the century in Westminster Abbey on April 29, 2011. Now the parents of three children, the Royal Couple are earning praise for redefining the royal parenting playbook while also cementing their destiny as the future of the British monarchy. The documentary employs archival footage and expert commentary from People magazine experts on the Royal Family.

8:31 p.m. on CBS United States of Al

After weeks of struggling with the strange and seemingly arbitrary new habits and attitudes that come with his new fishout-of-water life in America, Al (Adhir Kalyan) finally succumbs to a crippling case of homesickness in a new episode called "Homesick/Deghyat." When they realize what's going on, Riley, Art and Vanessa (Parker Young, Dean Norris, Kelli Goss) try to come up with a way to ease their friend's yearnings for home, hearth and family. Zarmina Hamidi and Susan Ruttan guest star.

9:30 p.m. on FOX Let's Be Real

Following a well-received election-season special that aired last fall, this new satirical series from Robert Smigel - who created some of the most memorable vintage comedy shorts on "Saturday Night Live" and also is the human voice behind the profane Triumph the Insult Comic Dog — uses puppets to cover politics and pop culture through topical sketches, celebrity cameos and remote pieces. Among the "puppetized" public figures are President Joe Biden, Kanye West, Dr. Anthony Fauci, LeBron James and New York Gov. Andrew Cuomo.
