“Movie: MLK/FBI”

From director Sam Pollard (“Sammy Davis Jr.: I’ve Gotta Be Me,” “Black Art: In the Absence of Light”) comes this compelling 2020 documentary that draws from information obtained from newly declassified documents and archival footage to tell the story of the U.S. government’s surveillance and harassment of civil rights leader Martin Luther King Jr.

“Movie: Cowboys”

Anna Kerrigan (“Five Days Gone”) wrote and directed this heartfelt 2020 family drama that casts Steve Zahn (“That Thing You Do!”) as Troy, a troubled Montana man who takes his trans son off into the wilderness when his mother (Jillian Bell, “Bless the Harts”) refuses to recognize the child’s sexual identity. Sasha Knight, Ann Dowd and Gary Farmer also star.

“Movie: Some Kind of Heaven”

First-time documentarian Lance Oppenheim takes viewers inside the largest retirement community, The Villages in Central Florida, to see how its 100,000-plus well-off Baby Boomer residents are living out their golden years in this prefab, palm-tree-lined fantasyland for the aged located about an hour north of Walt Disney World.

“Marvel’s M.O.D.O.K.”

This animated series for adults follows the adventures of the megalomaniacal supervillain M.O.D.O.K. (short for Mental Organism Designed Only for Killing), who after years of failure in his quest for world domination finds his professional and personal lives in ruins. Patton Oswalt voices the title character, with Melissa Fumero (“Brooklyn Nine-Nine”), Ben Schwartz and Wendi McLendon-Covey also lending their vocal talents. (ORIGINAL)
