tonight's best

Rafael de la Fuente

9 p.m. on CW Dynasty

After an important interview with Fallon and Liam (Elizabeth Gillies, Adam Huber) is interrupted by shenanigans from Jeff and Alexis (Sam Adegoke, Elaine Hendrix), Fallon is struck with a brilliant idea in the new episode "Everybody Loves the Carringtons." Some major complications come to light when Culhane (Robert C. Riley) receives a high honor, so he turns to Adam and Kirby (Sam Underwood, Maddison Brown) for help. Meanwhile, Sam (Rafael de la Fuente) hopes to impress Ryan (guest star Lachlan Buchanan) by hiring singer Brian Littrell (guest starring as himself).

10 p.m. on SHOW
Lavell Crawford: The Comedy Vaccine

Everyone knows the familiar saying that laughter is the best medicine, yet when the COVID-19 pandemic left many Americans jonesing for some giggles after weeks of lockdown, most comedy venues remained shuttered due to health regulations against crowds in closed spaces. Luckily, Lavell Crawford, a former runner-up on "Last Comic Standing," hopes to deliver a dose of high spirits during an hour of stand-up in a club where social-distancing protocols are carefully followed.

11 p.m. on HBO
A Black Lady Sketch Show

This smart, funny comedy series that looks at contemporary life from a Black female perspective wraps up Season 2, which made a triumphant return only after a maddeningly long hiatus necessitated by the coronavirus pandemic. HBO hasn't yet greenlit Season 3, but buoyed by strong critical support, and the Emmy-nominated show's higher profile in the pop culture world, executive producer Robin Thede says she and her team have already begun to talk to some potential A-list guests while awaiting official renewal.
