

FIREWORKS!

CELEBRATING THE FOURTH OF JULY
IN NORTHEAST OREGON

GO!

NORTHEAST OREGON

JULY 1, 2021

www.gonortheastoregon.com

ALSO INSIDE:
FIRST FRIDAY ART SHOWS
GREAT BEAR FOLK THEATRE
BRADY GOSS IN CONCERT
WALLOWA COUNTY FLY-IN

Wallowa County Chamber of Commerce/Contributed photo
"Shake the Lake" lights up the sky over
Wallowa Lake on the Fourth of July.

Picturing Paradise

Cuadros are embroidered and appliquéd fabric pictures created by women of Compacto Humano and Manos Ancashinas, two art cooperatives located in Pamploña Alta, a shantytown situated on the outskirts of Lima, Peru. This project, which in part, evolved into an exhibition, features the work of these women, placing emphasis on them as artists and the way their art reflects creativity, resilience, and hope despite the harsh conditions of their lives.

