“Movie: We Broke Up”

From director Jeff Rosenberg (“Hacks,” “Relative Obscurity”) comes this 2021 comedy about Lori and Doug (Aya Cash, “You’re the Worst,” and William Jackson Harper, “The Good Place”), who break up days before her sister’s wedding but decide to attend the nuptials as a couple so as to not spoil the fun. Sarah Bolger, Tony Cavalero and Peri Gilpin also star.

“Movie: The Virtuoso”

Anson Mount (“Hell on Wheels”) heads a talented cast in this 2021 actioner that casts him as a professional assassin who grapples with his conscience and an assortment of enemies as he tries to complete his latest job. Abbie Cornish, Anthony Hopkins, David Morse and Eddie Marsan are also in the cast for writer/director Nick Stagliano (“Good Day for It,” “The Florentine”).

“Movie: Vacation Friends”

From director Clay Tarver (“Silicon Valley”) comes this comedy movie about a straight-laced couple who let loose on a week of uninhibited fun and debauchery after befriending a thrill-seeking couple at a Mexican resort. Lil Rel Howery, Yvonne Orji, John Cena, Meredith Hagner and Robert Wisdom head the cast. (ORIGINAL)

“Movie: Four Good Days”

Glenn Close reunited with her “Albert Nobbs” director Rodrigo Garcia for this 2020 drama that casts her as Deb, a mother who must help her addict daughter Molly (Mila Kunis, “Black Swan”) through four crucial days of recovery in order for her to be eligible for a promising treatment. Stephen Root, Joshua Leonard and Sam Hennings are also in the cast.
