BAKER CITY — Get ready to celebrate Oktoberfest and support Crossroads Carnegie Art Center with a drive-thru event on Saturday, Oct. 16.

For the second year in a row, Crossroads Carnegie Art Center will hold the annual fall fundraiser as a drive-thru from 4:30-6:30 p.m. at the Baker County Conference and Event Center, 2600 East St., Baker City. The auction will again be virtual.

"It's simply not a good idea to gather 250 people together indoors right now," said Ginger Savage, executive director. "We want to assure that our community, guests, volunteers and staff are safe and still raise the critical operating support we need to keep Crossroads going strong."

It may not be in person, but Crossroads will provide everything you need to have an at-home celebration, Oktoberfest style, with a tablecloth, napkins and a link to find festive music.

Dinner tickets are $40 per person and available at www.one.bidpal.net/21oktoberfest/ welcome. In addition, a growler of beer from Barley Brown's ($17) or a bottle of wine from Copper Belt ($20-$28, depending on variety) can be pre-purchased to go with dinner. Tickets must be purchased by 5 p.m. Oct. 9.

FUN RUN

New this year is the inaugural Oktoberfest Potato fun run and walk at 7 a.m. Oct. 16. Sponsored by the Baker High School cross-country and track programs and Ward Ranches, this "Field to Fork to Fun" event has

AUCTION

The virtual auction will go live on the Oktoberfest website on Oct. 1 (same link as the one above to buy dinner tickets). Items will be on display downstairs at Crossroads, 2020 Auburn Ave. The auction closes Sunday, Oct. 17, at 9 p.m. (If you wish to donate to the auction,
