Carey Mulligan

8 p.m. on BRAVO
Movie: The Notebook

A young couple (Ryan Gosling, Rachel McAdams) is separated by her parents, who disapprove of his family's lower financial status. After not hearing from him for some time, she marries someone else (James Marsden). Years later, she sees in the newspaper that he has fully restored the old house he'd promised to fix up for her. James Garner and Gena Rowlands (the mother of the picture's director, Nick Cassavetes) also star in this moving, famously tear-inducing 2004 love story set in the 1940s.

8 p.m. on LIFE
Movie: Deadly Debutante

With her community's elite annual Debutante Ball quickly approaching, steel-willed beauty Anna is determined to be named Belle of the Ball at the upper-crust event, and she has all the family connections to do it. She's unhappy, then, by the arrival of an upstart named Sophia, who is, well, unsuitable in many respects, but her mother recently died — and the sympathy vote just may swing things Sophia's way. Angelina Boris, Natalia De Mendoza, Angela Baumgardner, Revell Carpenter and Christina Simone Patterson star.

8 p.m. on HBO
Movie: Promising Young Woman

Best known to many for her series roles in "Call the Midwife" and "The Crown" (playing Camilla Parker-Bowles in the latter), Emerald Fennell made a formidable feature directorial debut with this 2020 black-comedy thriller, earning an Oscar nod in that capacity and taking the award itself for her screenplay. Carey Mulligan scored a best actress nomination (along with several other accolades) for her fearless performance as a 30-year-old medical school dropout who embarks on a vigilante crusade against men who victimize women. Bo Burnham, Jennifer Coolidge and Alison Brie co-star.
