tonight's best

Julie Chen Moonves

9 p.m. on ABC
The Conners

Darlene (Sara Gilbert) reflects on why she takes a negative perspective on life after Ben (Jay R. Ferguson) declines her marriage proposal in "Education, Corruption, and Damnation." Her journey of self-discovery leads her to Pastor Phil (guest star Jason Alexander) for advice.

9 p.m. on PBS
NOVA

An estimated 55 million Americans say they use cannabis, and that number is expected to grow as voters in more and more states push for legalization. The new episode "The Cannabis Question" explores our relationship with cannabis, uncovering what scientists have discovered about the plant's effects on the body and brain. Though many believe cannabis is benign, even beneficial, confusion reigns as the federal government still classifies it as a Schedule 1 drug, in the same category as heroin.

9 p.m. on CBS
Big Brother

With much of the rest of the planet still dealing with a new variant of the coronavirus, the novelty of a group of strangers in a house cut off from the "outside world" may have resonated a bit differently for viewers, but Season 23 of this reality competition series continued to play out as usual, with its pool of 16 Houseguests reduced each week by eliminations. In tonight's two-hour finale, a jury of previously ousted players decides which of two finalists deserves the $750,000 grand prize. Julie Chen Moonves hosts.

10 p.m. on ABC
A Million Little Things

Gary (James Roday Rodriguez) makes some progress with Darcy (Floriana Lima), but continues to distance himself from anything involving Peter (guest star Andrew Leeds) in the new episode "Not the Plan." Meanwhile, Rome (Romany Malco) tries to distract Regina (Christina Roses) from her job search, which is starting to look more promising. Katherine (Grace Park) entertains a new friend while Maggie (Allison Miller) tries to adjust to a new work environment. David Giuntoli also stars.
