Kenan Thompson

8 p.m. on LIFE
Movie: The Good Father: The Martin MacNeill Story

Former prosecutor Nancy Grace is an executive producer on this new docudrama, which chronicles how the true nature of a seemingly perfect Utah doctor (Tom Everett Scott) came to light only after the death of his wife, Michele (Charisma Carpenter), a former beauty queen. The MacNeills and their eight children seem to lead an idyllic life, until Martin talks his wife into having cosmetic surgery. She subsequently drowns while taking prescription medication following her procedure. Scant weeks later, MacNeill brings home a new "nanny" for his children.

8 p.m. on NICK
Side Hustle

As the sitcom returns for Season 2, Lex, Presley and Munchy (Jules LeBlanc, Jayden Bartels, Isaiah Crews) are excited when they get hired as models during the town's big fashion week. While they initially assume that they'll be walking the runway in the fashion show itself, however, they soon learn to their dismay that the job is actually to be toy model builders. Mitchell Berg also stars.

8:29 p.m. on NBC
Saturday Night Live

Kenan Thompson, the longest-tenured cast member in "Saturday Night Live" history, is expected to be among the returnees as this Emmy-winning late-night comedy series opens Season 47. As usual, though, the status of several other main players — including fan favorite Kate McKinnon, who has won two Emmys during her run — is still hazy.

9:30 p.m. on DISN
Amphibia

Matt Braly's charming animated fantasy about a plucky young Thai-American teenager named Anne (voiced by Brenda Song), who is transported via a magical music box to a fantasy marshland, opens Season 3 with a change of scene, as Anne and the Plantars — her adoptive frog family — are whisked back to her hometown of Los Angeles. This unexpected move gives the Plantars a chance to learn about the world at large as they try to find their way back to Amphibia, while concealing their true identities.
