11 p.m. on PBS
POV

The new documentary "Fruits of Labor" from filmmaker Emily Cohen Ibanez follows a Mexican-American teenager named Ashley, who lives in a small agricultural town on the coast of central California. A high school senior, Ashley dreams of going away to college, but when local ICE raids threaten to separate her family, she is forced to become the principal breadwinner. The film is both a poignant coming-of-age story and an examination of the forces, both seen and unseen, that trap many families like Ashley's in poverty.
