

tonight's best

Rose McIver

8 p.m. on CBS
Young Sheldon

Season 5 of this hit prequel to "The Big Bang Theory" picks up the action right after the close of Season 4, which fans may remember ended on a suspenseful note. Sheldon's (Iain Armitage) parents earlier had gotten into a nasty argument during which George Sr. (Lance Barber) admitted to wife Mary (Zoe Perry) that he's unhappy with how his life has gone. He winds up in a bar, where he is approached by an appreciative and newly single neighbor (Melissa Peterman).

8:31 p.m. on CBS
United States of AI

This fish-out-of-water sitcom — about an Afghan military interpreter (Adhir Kalyan) trying to adjust to life in America — drew some fire early in its run over what some critics described as stereotypical character portrayals. As the show moves into its sophomore season, however, the show's writers seem determined to avoid any such traps. Throwing out the original Season 2 premiere script, the creative team fashioned tonight's new episode that sees AI (Adhir Kalyan) and his American friends scrambling to get AI's sister to safety after Kabul falls.

9 p.m. on CW
The Outpost

This fantasy-adventure series ends its run after four seasons with a finale called, fittingly, "Nothing Lasts Forever," as central character Talon (Jessica Green), leads her friends in a battle against the gods. Elsewhere, Janzo, Wren and Munt (Anand Desai-Barochia, Izuka Hoyle, Adam Johnson) fight to save the Kahvi and a ruler ultimately is crowned.

9:01 p.m. on CBS
Ghosts

Adapted from a hit Britcom, this comedy — which gets an hourlong premiere — stars Rose McIver ("Zombie") and Utkarsh Ambudkar ("The Mindy Project") as Samantha and Jay, a couple who decide to convert a run-down country estate they inherited into a bed-and-breakfast. Too late, they discover the property already is occupied by the spirits of now-departed former residents, including an 11th-century Viking explorer and a Prohibition-era lounge singer. The glorious Rebecca Wisocky leads the spectral ensemble, along with Brandon Scott Jones and Danielle Pinnoch, among others.
