tonight's best

Kevin Hart

8 p.m. on ABC
Shark Tank

Some new Sharks will be diving into the tank as this Emmy-winning business-centric reality series returns for Season 13. Actor and comic Kevin Hart is one of four new guest entrepreneurs sitting in during the product pitches. Joining Hart are Peter Jones from "Dragons' Den," the BBC counterpart of "Shark Tank"; Nextdoor co-founder Nirav Tolia; and Emma Grede, CEO and co-founder of Good America.

8 p.m. on LMN
Movie: Stalked in Paradise

Olivia didn't see any downside to posting photos and videos of herself on various stock photography websites, but her perspective changes dramatically when a man starts stalking both her and her husband in this 2021 thriller. When the creeper's obsessive behavior eventually crosses a line, Olivia doesn't hesitate to fight back, triggering outrage on the part of her stalker. Chelsie Hightower, Channon Voyce and Mason D. Davis star.

9 p.m. on CW
Nancy Drew

Season 3 opens on the evening of Horseshoe Bay's annual Harvest Carnival, but the festive mood is jarringly interrupted by the discovery of a dead young man on the Hudson carnival grounds. Not altogether willingly, Nancy (Kennedy McMann) and her Drew Crew become drawn into the case by the arrival of a new menace terrorizing the town: Temperance Hudson (guest star Bo Martynowska). Scott Wolf, Leah Lewis, Alex Saxon and Tunji Kasim also star in "The Warning of the Frozen Heart."

10 p.m. on AMC
Eli Roth's History of Horror

Among its other impacts, the COVID-19 pandemic also divided people into two camps: those who watched movies about deadly infectious diseases and those who avoided those films like, well, the plague. Needless to say, horror fans leaned toward the first group, so the new episode "Infections" looks at such films ranging from the reality-based thrillers such as "Outbreak," "Contagion" and "12 Monkeys" to spaceborne pathogens ("The Andromeda Strain") and zombie outbreaks (the Spanish chiller "Rec"). Eli Roth hosts.
