7 p.m. on TRAV The Dead Files

This eerie series closes out its 13th season with a finale called "Abducted," which sees medium Amy Allan and former homicide detective Steve DiSchiavi traveling to Coolidge, Ariz. They're making the trek in response to a plea from a distressed mother, who reports that she and her daughters are under nearly constant uncanny attacks from an interdimensional being. They can't afford to move to another home, so this beleaguered family needs answers before someone is seriously hurt.

8 p.m. on LIFE Movie: Don't Sweat the Small Stuff: The Kristine Carlson Story

Adapted from Kristine Carlson's bestselling book series of the same title, this new biographical TV movie chronicles the emotional journey Carlson (Heather Locklear) is forced to make after her husband, Dr. Richard Carlson (Jason MacDonald), dies unexpectedly. Prior to his passing, Kristine had been more than comfortable living in her husband's shadow. Now, however, she is forced to pull herself together and become the voice of a successful "brand," while also raising two daughters as a single mother. Natasha Bure and Emily Rose also star.

8:29 p.m. on NBC Saturday Night Live

Oscar and Emmy winner Rami Malek ("Bohemian Rhapsody," "Mr. Robot") has been the comic target in comedy sketches during previous seasons, but he makes his actual debut as host of this long-running late-night show tonight, introducing rapper and singer Young Thug as part of his on-camera duties. Given that Malek earned virtually universal acclaim for his uncanny impersonation of Queen frontman Freddie Mercury on the big screen, his acting chops may challenge his "SNL" co-stars to bring their A-game.
