TURNING BACK THE PAGES

50 YEARS AGO from the Democrat-Herald October 21, 1971

A representative from the Federal Aeronautics Administration last night told the City Council that the airport lease the city renewed recently with Don Doyle is in violation of FAA policy.

25 YEARS AGO from the Baker City Herald October 21, 1996

A relative newcomer to Grant County who has immersed himself in resource industries and politics for the past two years hopes to become the next state senator from District 28.

Ted M. Ferrioli, 45, a Republican, is the executive director of Malheur Timber Operations Inc., a consortium of lumber mills, logging and trucking companies.

10 YEARS AGO from the Baker City Herald October 21, 2011

Tim Burns loves to walk the Leo Adler Memorial Parkway, but he's not so fond of some of the people with whom he shares Baker City's paved path along the Powder River.

Actually it's not the presence of people, per se, that bothers Burns. Rather, it's a couple of habits shared by a minority of LAMP users. One of Burns' pet peeves, as it were, is the unleashed dog.

ONE YEAR AGO from the Baker City Herald October 22, 2020

Eight months after a bacterial illness was confirmed to be spreading through one of Baker County's two herds of bighorn sheep, animals in the other herd are also getting sick and, in a few cases, dying.

The newest outbreak of pneumonia is affecting sheep in the Burnt River Canyon herd.

That's the smaller of the county's two groups of bighorns, consisting of about 85 sheep, said Brian Ratliff, district wildlife biologist at the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife's (ODFW) Baker City office.

The much larger Lookout Mountain herd, in eastern Baker County, has about 400 bighorns. ODFW biologists have been monitoring pneumonia in Lookout Mountain sheep since February.

The Burnt River Canyon sheep range mainly in the deep, steep and exceedingly rugged canyon between Bridgeport and Durkee. The canyon is about 20 miles southeast of Baker City.

Bighorns were extirpated from the area early in the 20th century, but ODFW reintroduced the animals in the canyon in 1987, releasing nine ewes, four lambs, and two rams that were caught from the Leslie Gulch herd along Owyhee Reservoir in Malheur County.

Kay Daniels

Formerly of Baker City, 1938-2021

Kay Francis Daniels, 83, formerly of Baker City, died early Tuesday morning, Oct. 12, 2021, at her home in Weiser, Idaho, surrounded by her family.

A small private service is being held for family only. Thank you for your prayers.

Kay was born on June 25, 1938, in North Platte, Nebraska, the middle daughter of Howard and Freda McClain. She had one older sister, Elenor, and one younger sister, Sonja. When she was three years old the family moved to Electric City, Washington, where she spent her early childhood, then to Baker City at the beginning of her high school years where she continued to live for the next 50 years.

The summer before her senior year she met Chuck Daniels, the love of her life. After graduating from high school, they were married on Aug. 18, 1956. Over the next seven years they had five children, which kept her busy as a stay-at-home mom and homemaker. Her family was her life, sewing and cooking for them as well as teaching these skills to her children as they grew. She did everything from baking to upholstery, PTA, room mother, 4-H leader and Girl Scouts. She always had a garden, she canned it all at the end of the summer in time to go hunting with her family every fall.

When weekends were free, they were spent enjoying the outdoors with her family, fishing, camping, boating, snowmobiling, and mushroom hunting. She worked side by side with her husband remodeling every house they lived in. She instilled in her children a good work ethic, strong values, and a love of family.

When her youngest started school she went to work for Baker School District in food service. After just a few years she took a full-time job at the District 5J Administration Office where she worked in food service, transportation and the production room. She excelled in her work, taking on more responsibility all the time, even learning and succeeding at writing grants. She ran the production room for the entire district for a few years. At the time of her retirement, she was supervisor of the district's Food Service and Transportation departments.

After 26 years with the school district, she was ready for a new adventure, and she and Chuck began spending their winters down south near Lake Havasu, where they made many friends. They both loved it there, golfing, fishing, and playing cards with people from all over the country and Canada. They traveled down every winter for 17 years. They started taking all the grandchildren camping during the summer, passing on all the traditions they taught their own children. These are some of the best memories and stories that get shared during family get togethers. During this time in 2005, they relocated to Weiser, Idaho. It did not take them long to become involved in the community, coffee at McDonald's, and golfing. She loved attending the sports events of her grandchildren and football games at Memorial Park.

Kay adored her husband Charles for 64 years, and their family was everything to them. They had five children, 14 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren, and there was nothing they liked better than spending time with all of them. In their later years they were rarely seen apart. They loved to dance, and you could often catch them dancing to a tune, jitterbugging their way around their kitchen or shop.

Her family included her husband, Charles Daniels; her daughters, Diana Cutsforth (James), Carey Hopkins (Mike), Holly Palmer, and Charlene Trevino (Rudy), and her son, Lance Daniels; her grandchildren, Kaitlin Yamamoto (Thomas), Amanda Cutsforth Blatter (Kyle), Jillian Cutsforth, Danielle Marvin (Brent), Robert "Bobby" Hopkins (Dani), Hallie Hopkins, Marcus Palmer, Olivia Palmer (Eric), Erin Wheeler-McKenzie (Brad), Kyle Wheeler (Olina), Ryan Wheeler (Alora), Kali Oesterblad (Alex), Justyn Boyer (Licia), Carlee Daniels; and 25 great-grandchildren.

Kay was preceded in death by her husband, Charles; her parents, Howard and Freda McClain; her sister, Elenor; and her son-in-law, Charles "Cork" Palmer.

Samuel Orr

Formerly of Haines, 1951-2021

Samuel F. Orr, 70, formerly of Haines, died Sept. 21, 2021 in Portland, Oregon. A celebration of his life will take place in the spring of 2022, when it can be outdoors, as the family does not want anyone else to endure the hardship of the COVID virus. A memorial heavy equipment procession is planned to follow with a reception for family and friends at The Frontier in Haines.

Samuel Orr

Samuel F. Orr was born on May 28, 1951, in Lewellen, Nebraska, the first of six children born to Ted and Virginia Orr. His younger spunky years were spent on family ranches in Colorado and Wyoming. Sam was drafted during the Vietnam War and was stationed in Alaska as part of a construction battalion. There he met and later married his wife, Kathy. The new family started on Sam's family ranch in Colorado but later moved to Haines.

Once settled in Haines, the family raised cattle, hay, grass, and drove farm and cattle truck. Eventually the trucks transitioned into an excavation business that focused on road and infrastructure projects, mining and reclamation, as well as many other various areas. The business moved to Roosevelt, Washington, in 2005 to assist in mineral reclamation. It is there that Sam settled and built a life with his new companion, Alicia Proffitt.

Throughout his life, Sam loved to be outdoors, working at his latest job site, chatting with friends about business opportunities, and telling stories from yesterday over a shared drink. Sam is known for those tall tales, his quick laugh, and his hardworking and ambitious nature.

Sam is survived by his mother, Virginia Orr; his wife, Kathy; his three children, Theodore (wife Laura), Tyson (wife Sheila), and Kylie (husband Scott); four grandsons and four granddaughters; siblings, and numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

Memorial contributions can be made to your local FFA or 4-H chapter in Sam's honor through Tami's Pine Valley Funeral Home & Cremation Services PO Box 543 Halfway, Oregon 97834. To leave an online condolence for Sam's family, go to www.tamispinevalleyfuneralhome.com.
