8 p.m. on HALL
Movie: Next Stop, Christmas

Feeling vaguely dissatisfied, Angie wonders what would have happened if she had married an old flame who went on to become a famous sportscaster. After making the long holiday train trip to her hometown, she disembarks to find herself somehow 10 years in the past. Encouraged by an eccentric conductor, Angie decides to revisit that past Christmas and discover what — and who — is most important to her. Lyndsy Fonseca ("Turner & Hooch"), Chandler Massey, Lea Thompson and Christopher Lloyd star in this 2021 yuletide fantasy.

8 p.m. on LIFE
Movie: Highway to Heaven

Actress and singer Jill Scott is both an executive producer and star on this new modern reboot of the classic TV drama that ran on NBC for five seasons in the late '80s. Scott takes the gender-switched lead — a character originated by Michael Landon — as Angela, a heavenly emissary dispatched to help mortals in crisis. Barry Watson ("7th Heaven") also stars as Bruce, a junior high school principal to whom Angela reveals her true identity. The drama will air as a series of event TV movies.

9 p.m. on SHOW
Movie: Attica

Emmy-winning filmmaker Stanley Nelson ("Freedom Riders") takes a deep dive inside the bloodiest prison rebellion in U.S. history in this new documentary, which had its official premiere at the Toronto International Film Festival on Sept. 9, the 50th anniversary of the uprising at Attica Correctional Facility in upstate New York. That five-day 1971 prisoner rebellion claimed the lives of 28 inmates and 10 hostages. Original interviews with former inmates, family members of the hostages and other witnesses contribute to this urgent and ongoing plea for prison reform.
