

ORNAMENT EXPO IS HAPPENING NOW

BAKER CITY — The Christmas at Crossroads Ornament Expo is on now through Dec. 24 at Crossroads Carnegie Art Center, 2020 Auburn Ave. The center's 12-foot Christmas tree is decorated with handcrafted ornaments.

More ornament entries are welcome from artists who are 18 and older. To participate, stop by the center or to go www.crossroads-arts.org. Submissions for the Gift of Art show, which opens Dec. 3, are also being accepted.

"We sure are looking forward to filling our gallery space with items full of holiday cheer!" said Alyson Spiering, community art director.

OUTDOOR BEER GARDEN
RETURNS TO HANDMADE HOLIDAYS

LA GRANDE — Art Center East will host the 13th annual Handmade Holidays Makers Market on Nov. 19 and 20, featuring more than 20 regional artists and makers selling a wide range of handmade goods. Hours are 4-8 p.m. Friday and 9 a.m.-3 p.m. on Saturday. ACE is located at 1006 Penn Ave.

This year's event will include an outdoor beer garden from Side A Brewing on Friday evening, along with food from Brother Bear Cafe. On Saturday, Side A will offer festive brunch drinks while Brother Bear Cafe serves up breakfast. ACE will close the portion of Penn Avenue in front of the building to create space for the outdoor beer/food garden. Loveland Funeral Chapel will offer free, safe rides home on Friday and Saturday.

According to a press release, the outdoor component of Handmade Holidays Makers Market was inspired by the outdoor markets popular in Europe during the holiday season. The marchés de Noël and Weihnachtsmärkte that pop up in village and city streets throughout Europe give community members a place to gather and celebrate while shopping for holiday gifts made by local craftspeople.

ACE classes will continue during the weekend event. Find out more by visiting artcentereast.org/calendar.
