

Baker basketball teams open season Dec. 2

Baker City Herald

Baker's girls and boys basketball teams will open their 2021-22 seasons in a much more normal fashion, with the winter solstice looming rather than its summer counterpart.

With the pandemic postponing the usual winter sports schedule a year ago, basketball and other winter sports were moved to late spring. The Bulldogs played most of their games during June.

But now basketball, as well as wrestling and swimming, return to their traditional season.

The Baker boys and girls have the same first opponent — Homedale, Idaho.

The girls will play host to Homedale on Thursday, Dec. 2, while the boys travel to Homedale for a 6 p.m. PST tipoff.

Both girls and boys teams will amass well over 1,000 miles during a pair of December road trips where they'll play the same teams.

The Bulldogs will head to the Willamette Valley early in the month for games against Estacada on Dec. 9 and Molalla the next day. The next week they'll have an even longer journey, to Klamath Falls, for games against Mazama on Dec. 17 and Klamath Union the following day.

Both teams will also have a road trip to Central Oregon early in the new year, playing at Madras on Jan. 7 and at Crook County, in Prineville, on Jan. 8.

The Bulldogs open Greater Oregon League play on Jan. 11 against La Grande in the Baker gym. The girls will take on the Tigers at 6 p.m., followed by the boys game around 7:30 p.m.

The rematch of the rivalry will follow at La Grande on Jan. 28, with the same tipoff times.

The Baker wrestling team will open its season on Dec. 3 when the JV team travels to Enterprise. Varsity wrestlers start the next day, Dec. 4, with the Anthony Lakes Invite at Baker High School starting at 10 a.m. Other teams are Grant Union and Nampa Christian. Baker will also have intrasquad matches starting at 6 p.m. that day.

The schedule for swimming is in progress.

Raiders take advantage of penalty, beat Cowboys 36-33 in OT

The Associated Press

ARLINGTON, Texas — Daniel Carlson kicked a 29-yard field goal in overtime after Anthony Brown's fourth pass-interference penalty kept the drive alive, and the Las Vegas Raiders beat the Dallas Cowboys 36-33 on Thursday, Nov. 25.

Carlson's fifth field goal came after Brown was called for interference on Zay Jones on third-and-18. All four of Brown's interference penalties came on third-down incompletions.

The Raiders (6-5) ended a three-game losing streak with their first Thanksgiving victory since 1968. It was their fourth appearance on the holiday since then, with the previous two losses coming at the Cowboys.

Carlson put Las Vegas ahead 33-30 with a career-long 56-yarder with 1:52 remaining. Greg Zuerlein, who missed an extra point after the first Dallas TD, answered with a 45-yarder with 19 seconds to go.

Tony Pollard had a 100-yard kickoff return for Dallas in the third quarter, but was stopped inside the 15 to start overtime. The Cowboys went three-and-out starting from their 7, and the Raiders finished off the third victory for the AFC West against the NFC East-leading Cowboys (7-4) in the past four games.

Brown had his back to Jones when Derek Carr threw the pass with Las Vegas at its 43. The penalty put the Raiders at the Dallas 24, and the winning kick came after Dallas was penalized twice for rushing past the line of scrimmage before the snap.

Carr threw for 373 yards, including a 56-yard touchdown strike to DeSean Jackson. Marcus Mariota had a short scoring run on a shotgun keeper.

Dak Prescott had 209 of his 375 yards passing in the fourth quarter. His 32-yard touchdown pass to Dalton Schultz and 2-point conversion toss to the tight end pulled the Cowboys even at 30 with 2:54 remaining after they trailed almost from the start.

Bills 31, Saints 6

NEW ORLEANS — Josh Allen passed for 260 yards and four touchdowns as Buffalo sent injury-ravaged New Orleans to its fourth straight loss.

Dawson Knox caught two touchdown passes, giving him a franchise-best seven TDs in a single season by a tight end. His second score gave the Bills (7-4) a 24-0 lead.

Stefon Diggs had seven receptions for 74 yards and a touchdown, and running back Matt Breida turned a short pass into a 23-yard score.

The Saints (5-6), playing without dynamic running back Alvin Kamara for a third straight game, were shut out for three quarters. They finally scored on Trevor Siemian's 11-yard pass to Nick Vannett on the first play of the fourth.
