Jeff Probst

The coronavirus pandemic delayed production on Season 41 of this iconic reality competition series, but "Survivor" producers took advantage of that on-hold period to freshen the format of their show, which included making the season markedly shorter: 26 days, instead of the traditional 39. Set for the ninth time in Fiji, the season premiered last September with 18 new contestants, among them NFL veteran Danny McCray. Jeff Probst hosts.

8:30 p.m. on NBC Kenan

In the new yuletide episode "Christmas Show," Kenan (Kenan Thompson) gets his nose out of joint when Gary (Chris Redd) pursues a new client just as the TV show's production team is focused on the annual Holiday Spectacular. Elsewhere, Mika (Kimrie Lewis) is feeling unappreciated, and Rick (Don Johnson) tries to unseat Tami (Taylor Louderman) as leader of the band.

9 p.m. on NBC . Mr. Mayor

The political comedy returns for a special episode called "Mr. Mayor's Magical L.A. Christmas," wherein Mayor Neil Bremer (Ted Danson) is such a slave to his compulsion for giftgiving that he forces his staff to work on what's known as "L.A. Christmas Eve" so his "perfect gift" will have time to arrive. Holly Hunter, Vella Lovell, Kyla Kenedy, Mike Cabellon and Bobby Moynihan also star.

9:30 p.m. on NBC Chrisley Knows Best

In the special seasonal episode "A Very Chrisley Christmas," Nanny Faye is feeling unusually nostalgic as the holiday season reaches its zenith, so she offers to serve as Christmas morning host to the family. Todd, ever the control freak, reluctantly agrees to her proposal, then promptly butts heads with his mother over whether couture or kitsch should dominate in the decorations for the gathering.
