PENDLETON — The Oregon East Symphony Youth Orchestra will present its winter concert on Thursday, Jan. 27, at 7 p.m.

Admission is free and open to the public. The concert will take place at the Vert Auditorium, 480 SW Dorian Ave.

Masks are required for all attendees.

The Preludes preparatory orchestra will be performing works titled "Sky Suite" and "G-Force" and the main theme from "Pirates of the Caribbean." This will be their first concert under the direction of Viet Block, OES assistant concertmaster.

The OES Youth Orchestra will follow with performances of works by Brahms, Mendelssohn and Mozart.

person again with these wonderful musicians," said Zach Banks, OES Youth Orchestra conductor. "Our audiences will be proud to once again see the growth of technique and musical maturity in these bright young students."

Banks said these two groups are smaller chamber orchestras — Preludes has 12 members, and the Youth Orchestra has 14.

"Our students are all mainly from Umatilla County, and we welcome student musicians from all over Eastern Oregon," he said.

This concert is possible with support from the Umatilla County Cultural Coalition, Pendleton Rotary Club, Pendleton Music Company and Banner Bank Pendleton.
