“Murderville”

This six-episode procedural crime comedy offers up a unique premise: Detective Terry Seattle (Will Arnett) is joined by a celebrity guest star each episode to solve a murder. The catch is the guest isn't given a script and the pair have no idea what is about to happen but they'll have to improvise their way through the case in order to catch the killer. (ORIGINAL)

“Race: Bubba Wallace”

Wallace's personal and professional lives are in the spotlight of this six-episode documentary series that chronicles his rise to the elite ranks of the NASCAR Cup series as its only full-time Black driver and the turbulent aftermath that followed his decision to speak out about racial injustice. (ORIGINAL)

“Movie: Tyler Perry's A Madea Homecoming”

Perry is back as writer, director and star of this latest entry in the “Madea” film franchise, which finds her family coming to town to celebrate her great-grandson's graduation from college, but some hidden secrets emerge that threaten to destroy the joyous occasion. Tamela Mann, David Mann, Cassi Davis Patton and Brendan O'Carroll also star. (ORIGINAL)

“Vikings: Valhalla”

From showrunner and executive producer Jeb Stuart (“Die Hard,” “The Fugitive”) comes this historical drama series set 100 years after the original Vikings series, that chronicles the heroic adventures of legendary explorer Leif Eriksson (Sam Corlett, “Chilling Adventures of Sabrina”), his fiery sister Freydis Eriksdotter (Frida Gustavsson, “The Witcher”) and ambitious Nordic prince Harald Sigurdsson (Leo Suter, “Sanditon”).
