LEARN TO WRITE POWERFUL POETRY AT PAINTED SKY

CANYON CITY — Painted Sky Center for the Arts, 118 Washington St., will have a four-session class on creating short, powerful poetry starting Wednesday, March 2, 5:30 p.m.

The course will entail mastering a few basic principles of short poetry creation, comparing some works of others, followed by numerous short writing cycles. In each writing cycle, a stimulus will be presented followed by an in-class writing session and optional sharing of work. In each class, there will be an optional homework assignment.

This class is for ages third grade and older. Each student should bring a notebook and a pen or pencil. This class meets for four sessions — March 2, 9, 16 and 23. Cost is $72 members or $80 nonmembers. Scholarships are available. Register online at www.paintedskycenter.com.
