“Is It Cake?”

“Saturday Night Live” cast member Mikey Day is the host of this hour competition series that challenges talented bakers with creating hyper-realistic cakes that look exactly like everyday objects — at least enough to fool a panel of celebrity judges. The one who does it best wins a cash prize. (ORIGINAL)

“Young, Famous & African”

From South Africa comes this unscripted series that follows a group of affluent A-list social media personalities from South Africa, Nigeria and East Africa as they set out to find love, rekindle old flames and reboot struggling relationships while continuing to pursue their successful careers. (ORIGINAL)

“Jeff Foxworthy: The Good Old Days”

The “you might be a redneck” comic looks back on simpler times as he gives his take on aging, texting and sex education and relates a wild story from his Blue Collar Comedy Tour in this stand-up performance filmed in Oct. 2021 at the State Theatre in Minneapolis. (ORIGINAL)

“Bridgerton”

The sophomore round of this period drama from Shondaland and creator Chris Van Dusen shifts the focus to Daphne Bridgerton’s (Phoebe Dynevor) older brother Lord Anthony (Jonathan Bailey) and his search for a suitable wife. Simone Ashley and Charithra Chandran join the cast as Kate and Edwina, sisters and new arrivals from India. Claudia Jessie and Nicola Coughlan are cast returnees. (ORIGINAL)
