Perdita Weeks

8 p.m. on CW Charmed

Mel (Melonie Diaz) books a weekend getaway with her sister to take some time off after Maggie's (Sarah Jeffery) incessant demon hunting leads her down a dangerous path in the new episode "Ripples." That leaves the new Charmed One (Lucy Barrett) in charge of the Command Center for the first time — and it doesn't go as well as anyone might have hoped. Rupert Evans also stars.

9 p.m. on CBS Magnum P.I.

Higgins (Perdita Weeks) finds herself in a dizzyingly complicated situation when a 12-year-old asks for her help solving a triple homicide that involves the girl's mother in a new episode called "Remember Me Tomorrow." Elsewhere, while doing volunteer work with the No Veteran Dies Alone program to comfort veterans now in hospice, Magnum (Jay Hernandez) bonds with a terminally ill yet still vibrant patient and tries to reunite him with his family. Zachary Knighton and Stephen Hill also star.

9 p.m. on CW Dynasty

In the new episode "Devoting All of Her Energy to Hate," Fallon (Elizabeth Gillies) enlists Jeff's (Sam Adegoke) help in her latest scheme, while Blake (Grant Show) takes matters into his own hands. Meanwhile, Liam and Culhane (Adam Huber, Robert C. Riley) run into a stumbling block that forces them to take extreme measures. Elsewhere, Kirby (Maddison Brown) finds reentering the professional modeling world is tougher than she anticipated, so Sam (Rafael de la Fuente) offers to help.

10 p.m. on CBS Blue Bloods

Series star Bridget Moynahan, who plays Erin Reagan, makes her directorial debut with "Hidden Motive," a new episode that finds Mayor Chase (Dylan Walsh) raising Jamie (Will Estes) to head Chase's security detail, a move that leaves Frank (Tom Selleck) feeling blindsided. Elsewhere, Danny and Baez (Donnie Wahlberg, Marisa Ramirez) investigate the killing of a wealthy college student, while Eddie (Vanessa Ray) ruffles her partner Badillo's (Ian Quinlan) feathers when she arrests a protestor without checking with him first.
