REPORTER WANTED

The Baker City Herald, a three-days-per-week newspaper in Northeastern Oregon, is looking for a versatile reporter who can cover a variety of topics as well as local youth sports. The ideal candidate will be equally adept at describing the action at a city council meeting or a high school football game, and capable of producing compelling, thorough stories and photographs in a timely way for digital and print publication. Baker City, population 10,000, is on the eastern side of Oregan, with a four-season climate and two major mountain ranges within a half hour's drive. Boise, Idaho, is a two-hour drive by freeway.

Baker City Herald is part of EO Media Group, an award-winning and innovative news organization with an active family of owners. This position offers excellent advancement opportunities in a company that prefers to hire from within. EO Media Group owns 13 newspapers and journals that provide accurate, fair and timely reporting about the people and issues impacting the communities we serve in the Pacific Northwest, reflecting the responsibility and spirit of a free press. Journalism education or experience is required for this full-time (37.5 hours per week) position. When applying, upload resume, letter of interest and three or more clips.

REPORTER NEEDED

The La Grande Observer, a family-owned newspaper in the heart of beautiful Eastern Oregon, has an opening for a reporter equally at home covering hard news, sports and writing features and service pieces. You will report, take photos, break stories online, and interact with our followers on social media. We seek an energetic, creative, outgoing and hard-working reporter. This is your opportunity to join a company that believes in community journalism. The Observer is published Tuesday/Thursday/Saturday in Northeastern Oregon and is part of EO Media Group, an award-winning and innovative news organization with an active family of owners. The successful candidate will have the opportunity to collaborate with other EO Media Group properties on content teams reporting stories of interest to readers in the region and state.

The Observer is located in La Grande, Oregon, the home of Eastern Oregon University and a short 2-1/2 hours from Boise, Idaho. The community has deep agricultural roots and a growing arts community. The location offers year-round recreational opportunities, including backpacking, camping, fishing, hunting, snowmobiling, horseback riding and mountain biking. MULTI-MEDIA JOURNALIST

Where the Columbia River meets the Umatilla Plateau and the Blue Mountains of Eastern Oregon is a dynamic, story rich and photogenic environment. It is also home to one of America's best small family-owned daily newspapers and websites. The East Oregonian, headquartered in Pendleton, Oregon, has an opening for a full-time multi-media journalist. We value news judgment, accurate and timely reporting, creativity, and the ability to tell a story in both words and image. You must be able to meet deadlines, turn around story assignments, edit still and/or video images, and write accurate and informative captions. Multimedia and video skills are a plus. You will work alongside other top-notch journalists at an award-winning daily newspaper. You will also be required to generate story ideas and photo/video galleries from your work. You must be willing to work a flexible schedule which can often include nights and weekends. Candidates should have 2 - 3 years reporting and photography experience, be able to operate sophisticated camera equipment, have knowledge of editorial content management systems, Adobe Photoshop and a college degree in journalism or related experience. Reliable transportation with a valid in-state driver's license and good driving record are required due to required travel to other EO Media Group properties. Our full-time staff typically work 37.5 hour work weeks. When applying, upload a cover letter, resume and writing and photography samples.
