

JOIN A DRUM CIRCLE APRIL 2

BAKER CITY — The monthly community drum circle is happening Saturday, April 2, 4-6 p.m. at Churchill School, 3451 Broadway St. No drumming experience is necessary. Participants are welcome to bring a drum, or borrow one provided by the Art Roamers. This event is free; masks are required inside the building.

OLDIES NIGHT DOUBLES UP WITH EAGLES, THREE DOG NIGHT

MILTON-FREEWATER — Regardless of what mama tells you, be sure to attend the upcoming Oldies Night in Milton-Freewater, featuring the hits of Three Dog Night and the Eagles.

BJ the DJ will spin tunes from the two Los Angeles-based pop groups. The free event is Saturday, April 2, 7-10 p.m. at Wesley United Methodist Church, 816 S. Main St.

The Eagles placed two dozen songs on the Billboard Hot 100 charts, including five that peaked at No. 1. "Hotel California" was the biggest. In all, you'll hear 17 Eagles tunes.

But that's not all, there will be

23 hits by Three Dog Night. The group had three chart-toppers, including "Joy to the World," "Mama Told Me Not to Come" and "Black & White."

Disc jockey Bob Jones also will share about the groups, their songs and the times. For questions, contact Jones at dubuquer70@gmail.com or 541-938-7028.

THE BEAT GOES ON WITH JAM NIGHT

PENDLETON — Be sure and mark your calendar for the upcoming Jam Night. Held the first Thursday of each month at Pendleton Center for the Arts, musicians of all skill levels are invited to get their groove on.

A free drop-in event, the next Jam Night is Thursday, April 7, 7-8:30 p.m. at 214 N. Main St. Musicians are invited to grab their guitars, bongos, banjos, mandolins or whatever they have and join in the jam session. Blues, rock, folk, country, pop and more will fill the air as participants experiment with sound.
