

PIANO CONCERT FRIDAY
FEATURES JOHN NILSEN

HERMISTON — An evening of piano music is featured during an upcoming concert on Friday, April 8, at Hermiston First United Methodist Church, 191 E. Gladys Ave.

The music begins at 7 p.m. Admission is by donation.

John Nilsen, who was born in Seattle, moved with his family a few years later to Portland. He began studying classical piano at age 6, and later picked up the guitar. The award-winning musician founded the Magic Wing recording label in 1987.

A graduate of Southern Oregon University, the school recognized Nilsen in 1995 with the Distinguished Alumnus Award for his outstanding achievements and leadership in the field of performing arts. Also, he was selected as a Yamaha Signature Piano Artist in 2021 in recognition of his musical and songwriting talents.

For more information about the local concert, contact Pastor Patty Nance at herfumc@outlook.com or 541-567-3002. For more about Nilsen, visit www.magicwing.com.

John Nilsen, a Pacific Northwest pianist, will perform in concert on April 8, 7 p.m. at the Hermiston First United Methodist Church.

6-9 p.m. in the band room at Hermiston High School, 600 S. First St. People do not have to register in advance. The performance is April 23, 6 p.m. in the school's fine arts auditorium.

The show will be an open competition, beginning jazz band teacher Mike Kellison said. All age groups and types of talent will compete against each other.

A fundraiser for the HHS Band Boosters, audience members can vote by placing donations in their favorite act's corresponding box. The overall winners are the acts that garner the most donations on behalf of the band boosters. Organizers, Kellison said, are still in the process of determining prizes for the top three acts.

For more information, email Kellison at michael.kellison@hermistonsd.org or search/send a message via www.facebook.com/hermistonbandboosters.
