

DREADED DROUGHT CONTINUES

Phillips Reservoir, depleted by more than a year of drought, was holding just 10% of its capacity at the end of March. The reservoir, along the Powder River about 17 miles southwest of Baker City, supplies irrigation water to more than 30,000 acres in Baker Valley.

Jayson Jacoby/EO Media Group

AgriBusiness

Spring 2022

WALLOWA COUNTY
CHIEFTAIN

EAST OREGONIAN

Baker City Herald

THE OBSERVER

the Blue Mountain
EAGLE