11:30 a.m. on NBC 148th Kentucky Derby

It's time for the Run for the Roses again, as the 148th Kentucky Derby kicks off today at Churchill Downs in Louisville, Ky. — and serves as the first leg of horse racing's Triple Crown. Sometimes labeled as the "most exciting two minutes in sports," the race is run by three-year-old Thoroughbreds who sprint 1-1/4 miles. The 2021 race became mired in controversy when jockey John Velazquez rode the Bob Bafferttrained Medina Spirit to victory. But months later, Mandaloun was awarded the win after Medina Spirit tested positive for a steroid.

8 p.m. on HALL Movie: Warming Up to You

Kate Wolfe (Cindy Busby), a fitness instructor, takes a job at her best friend's wellness retreat, where one of her first clients is Rick Steele (Christopher Russell), an A-list actor training for a new movie. As they work together to make athletic progress, they begin to click romantically as well. That blossoming relationship is threatened, though, then Rick's co-star, Liza Calhoun (Caitlin Stryker), arrives to train as well. Devon Alexander, Latonya Williams and Al Miro co-star in this 2021 romance.

9 p.m. on SHOW Movie: Ida Red

Academy Award winner Melissa Leo ("The Fighter") takes the title role of career criminal Ida "Red" Walker in writer-director John Swab's 2021 crime thriller. While serving a 25-year sentence in an Oklahoma prison for a heist gone wrong, Ida discovers she has only months to live. She tells her husband (Frank Grillo) and son (Josh Hartnett) - who are running their crime family in her absence — that she wants to die a free woman. The two men resolve to make that happen, whatever it takes. William Forsythe also stars.

"Wrong Turn" (2021, Horror) Charlotte Vega,
