“Man in the Arena: Tom Brady”

(Available now)
Tom Brady has been called the GOAT (greatest of all time) and this documentary series from NFL Films, 199 Productions and Religion of Sports illustrates why. Each episode focuses on a single Super Bowl appearance — 10 in all — and the events pivotal and otherwise that led to them.

“Zeke and Luther: Seasons 1-3”

(Available now)
Hutch Dano and Adam Hicks star as the titular best friends who set their sights on becoming the greatest skateboarders in the world in this action series that originally aired on Disney XD from 2009 to 2012. Daniel Curtis Lee, Ryan Whitney, Nate Hartley and Terri Douglas also star.

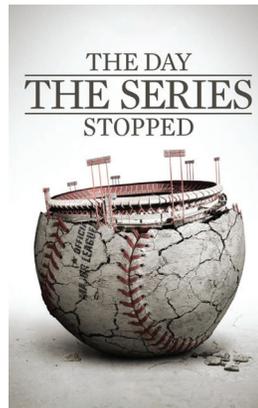

“Once: Seasons 1-3”

(Available now)
From Argentina comes this youth sports telenovela that follows the adventures of Gabriel “Gabo” Moreti (Mariano González, “Zion”), a teen who accepts a scholarship to play professional soccer for the prestigious Sports Academic Institute. The series, which ran from 2017-19 in that country, contains an astounding 220 episodes.

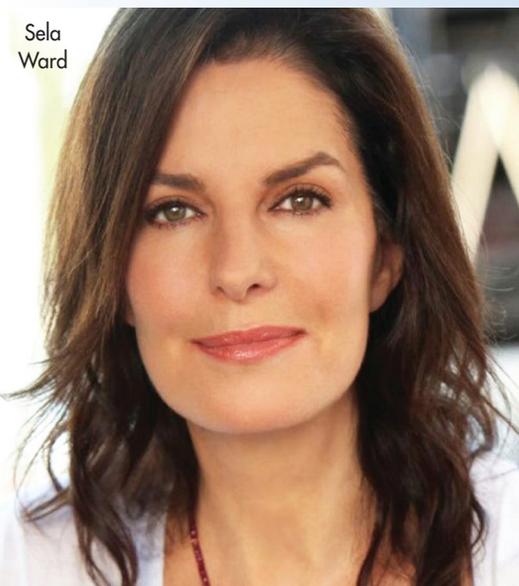

“30 for 30: The Day the Series Stopped”

(Available now)
This documentary from director Ryan Fleck (“Mrs. America”) recalls the 6.9 Loma Prieta earthquake of Oct. 17, 1989, that brought death and destruction to the Bay Area and shook the ground beneath San Francisco’s Candlestick Park, where Game 3 of the World Series between the Giants and Oakland A’s was about to begin.
