Conversations With Friends

“Conversations with Friends”

Newcomer Alison Oliver stars in this 12-episode limited drama as Frances, a 21-year-old college student navigating a series of relationships that force her to confront her own vulnerabilities for the first time. Joe Alwyn (“The Favourite”), Sasha Lane (“American Honey”) and Jemima Kirke (“Girls”) are also in the cast. (ORIGINAL)

“Movie: Sundown”

Michel Franco (“New Order,” “After Lucia”) wrote and directed this 2021 French-Mexican drama about a wealthy man (Tim Roth, “Pulp Fiction”) who attempts to abandon his life while vacationing with his family in Acapulco, Mexico. Charlotte Gainsbourg (“Melancholia”), Iazua Larios (“Song for Maria”) and Henry Goodman (“Taking Woodstock”) are also in the cast.

“Movie: The Valet”

Richard Wong (“Come As You Are,” “Columbia: The Musical”) directed this comedy that stars Eugenio Derbez (“How to Be a Latin Lover”) as Antonio, a parking lot valet who agrees to pose as the paramour for a movie star (Samara Weaving, “Nine Perfect Strangers”) to cover for her relationship with a married man (Max Greenfield, “New Girl”). Betsy Brandt and Amaury Nolasco also star. (ORIGINAL)

“Movie: American Underdog”

Adapted from Kurt Warner’s memoirs of the same title, this 2021 drama casts Zachary Levi (“Chuck”) as Warner, who rose from stocking supermarket shelves in his native Iowa to catching on with the St. Louis Rams as an undrafted free agent and ultimately quarterbacking them to victory in Super Bowl XXXIV in 2000. Anna Paquin, Dennis Quaid and Bruce McGill are also in the talented cast.
