“Shook” (May 22)

This Disney Channel family comedy series follows Mia (Sofia Wylie, “High School Musical: The Musical — The Series”), a 15-year-old who yearns to dance professionally but is held back by responsibilities to her sister and single mother. Somali Rose, LeShay N. Tomlinson and Wayne Juice Mackins are also in the cast.

“Obi-wan Kenobi” (May 25)

From Lucasfilm comes this limited series that picks up 10 years after the events of “Star Wars: Revenge of the Sith,” where Obi-Wan Kenobi (Ewan McGregor) faced his greatest defeat — the downfall and corruption of his best friend and Jedi apprentice Anakin Skywalker (Hayden Christensen), who turned to the dark side as evil Sith Lord Darth Vader. Moses Ingram, Joel Edgerton, Bonnie Pisese, Kumail Nanjiani also star. (ORIGINAL)

“We Feed People” (May 27)

From National Geographic, director Ron Howard and producer Brian Grazer comes this documentary that chronicles the global effort of renowned chef and humanitarian José Andrés and his team at the nonprofit World Central Kitchen, as they circle the globe to provide healthy food to those affected in disaster zones. (ORIGINAL)

“Bad Boys” (May 27)

Two mismatched Miami cops — one footloose and cocky, the other a henpecked family man — must switch identities to get the cooperation of the sole witness to a murder and reclaim a consignment of drugs stolen right from under their precinct’s “nose.” Martin Lawrence, Will Smith and Tea Leoni star in this 1995 comedy.
