LA GRANDE — Eastern Oregon University's chamber choir will give its final performance of the school year on Thursday, May 26. The music begins at 7:30 p.m. in EOU's McKenzie Theatre, inside Loso Hall.

The 39-member choir is conducted by Peter Wordelman and will also feature a number of EOU student conductors — Noah Pratton, Jacob Gau, Clarissa Nitz, Justin Gardner, Austin Nash and Elijah Azurin — who are part of a Choral Methods class and have been working with the choir throughout spring term.

"It is great to watch their progress as they begin to build confidence as a conductor and teacher," Wordelman said.

Wordelman said the concert will feature many different
