

Create art with siblings, or learn to play Pokemon

Pendleton Center for the Arts continues to add classes to its summer schedule

Go! staff

PENDLETON — The Pendleton Center for the Arts is still adding classes to the summer schedule, but here's a look at what's happening soon at the center, 214 N. Main St.

To register, go to pendletonarts.org/classes/youth. For information, call 541-278-9201.

CELEBRATE YOUR SIBLING(S)

Kids enjoy creative expression together in a three-session class. Children will be encouraged to create pieces of art — working, planning and communicating together — resulting in keepsakes for families to enjoy or give as gifts. All siblings welcomed. Registration requested so the center can plan accordingly.

- June 7-9 or Aug. 23-25; 11 a.m.-12:30 p.m.
- Ages 5-12
- $50 for two siblings, $5 per additional sibling

SUMMER ART STUDIO

Kids now have full access to the PCA's art materials and studio space, inspiring them to explore art independently through open-ended drawing, painting and collage, or anything their imagination designs. The emphasis is on creative learning and play through art making. Hit only the sessions you can or attend all four. Parents can participate too. (Children 8 and younger must be accompanied by a parent or pal older than 18).

Pendleton Center for the Arts/Contributed photo
Kids will learn how to recycle, reduce and reuse in a workshop that begins June 15 at Pendleton Center for the Arts.

- Thursdays, July 7-Aug. 25; 4-5 p.m.
- Age 12 and younger
- Free

RECYCLE, REDUCE, REUSE

Each week will feature a different project and lesson on what we can do to keep our earth clean and healthy, as well as having some fun doing it. Projects will be mask making, wind chimes, liter soda garden, watering can, recycled egg carton flower arrangement and robots. Registration requested so the center can plan accordingly.

- Wednesdays, June 15-July 20; noon-1:30 p.m.
- Ages 5-12
- $50 members, $55 nonmembers

BRING YOUR BABY!

Use air-dried clay to create keepsakes and lasting memories for yourself or loved ones. Bring your baby and enjoy this creative endeavor while exposing your little one to art. Each session is the same class, so pick one that fits in your schedule.

- June 18, July 23, Aug. 20; 10:30-11:30 a.m.
- Age 3 and younger with caregiver
- $20

TCG POKEMON EDITION

TCG stands for "trading card games," which is a fun way to make new friends and share your passion for Pokemon. Ian Summerfield will guide students through the tips and tricks of playing this game. There will be three two-day sessions for two age groups.

Pendleton Center for the Arts/Contributed photo
Learn how to play Pokemon in a class at Pendleton Center for the Arts.

- June 13 and 27; July 11 and 25; Aug. 15 and 29
- Ages 7-9: 1-2 p.m.
- Ages 10-12: 2-3 p.m.
- $20 members, $25 nonmembers

ROCK & ROLL CAMP FOR TEENS

This free, annual camp returns in August offering five daily sessions with teachers from West Coast indie bands.

Some participants put together bands, write original music and record songs. Others work on rock journalism, create a camp 'zine or generate videos for YouTube. There is no residency requirement, and no musical experience is necessary.

To register early, go to pendletonarts.org/rock-roll-camp.

- Aug. 8-12; 9 a.m.-4 p.m.
- Showcase concert on Friday
- Ages 13-18
- Free

BIKES, SKIS, CLIMBING GEAR, ADVICE, BEER & RENTALS, GOOD PEOPLE

THE MOUNTAIN WORKS

1301 Adams Ave.
La Grande, OR
Mon-Sat • 10am-6pm
541.963.3220

MOUNTAINWORKSBICYCLES.COM

f i