“Movie: Ted K”

Tony Stone (“Severed Ways: The Norse Discovery of America”) co-wrote and directed this 2021 drama that explores the life of Ted Kaczynski (played here by Sharlto Copley, “District 9”) in his years in Lincoln, Mont., leading up to his arrest as the Unabomber. Drew Powell, Travis Bruyer and Wayne Pyle also star.

“Movie: The Worst Person in the World”

Director Joachim Trier (“Thelma”) was Oscar-nominated for co-writing (with Eskil Vogt) the screenplay for this 2021 drama about Julie (Renate Reinsve, “Welcome to Norway”), a young woman forced to take a good, hard look at herself when she encounters turbulence in her love life and career. Anders Danielsen, Maria Di Meo and Herbert Nordrum also star.

“Movie: The Burning Sea”

From Norway comes this 2021 actioner about an explosion that rocks an oil rig and sends it to the bottom of the sea, and the researchers who discover that it could presage an even bigger catastrophe. Kristine Kujath Thorp, Nils Elias Olsen and Rolf Larsen head the cast for director John Andreas Andersen (“The Quake”).

The Bear

“The Bear”

Jeremy Allen White (“Shameless”) stars in this comedy series as Carmen “Carmy” Berzatto, a young chef in the fine dining world who returns to Chicago following his brother’s suicide to help run his family’s sandwich shop and cope with the soul-crushing realities of running a small business, including a rebellious kitchen staff and strained family relations. Ebon Moss-Bachrach, Ayo Edebiri and Abby Elliott also star. (ORIGINAL)
