"America the Beautiful" (July 4)

From the creative forces behind "Planet Earth," "Frozen Planet" and "Disneynature" comes this documentary series that looks at the varied landscapes of this country as well as the geographic forces that shape them, the wildlife that live in them and the people charged with caring for them. (ORIGINAL)

"G.O.A.T.: Season 1"

(Available now)
Literally hosted by a goat, this comedy series that premiered last year on Disney XD scans the internet for what it deems to be the best viral videos of all time, ranging from trick shots and special effects videos to outside-the-box contraptions and just plain weirdness.

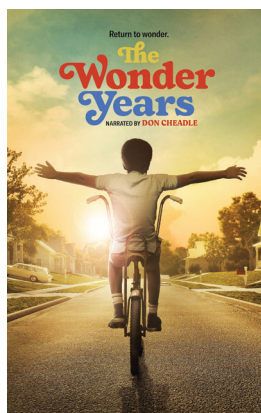

"Ultra Violet & Black Scorpion" (Available now)

The world of Lucha Libre, a freeform wrestling style from Mexico, provides the backdrop for this action-fantasy starring Scarlett Estevez as Violet, a Mexican-American teenager whose life is turned upside-down when a magical luchador mask transforms her into Ultra Violet, a crime-fighting superhero. Fortunately, her uncle (J.R. Villarreal) already is a superhero called Black Scorpion and can train her in using her new powers.

"The Wonder Years: Season 1" (Available now)

Inspired by the Emmy-winning coming-of-age sitcom of the same title that ran on ABC from 1988 to 1993, this comedy series follows Black 12-year-old Dean Williams (Elisha "EJ" Williams) as he and his middle-class family go through life in late 1960s-era Montgomery, Ala. Dulé Hill and Saycon Sengbloh (Broadway's "Eclipsed") play Dean's parents; Don Cheadle narrates the show as the voice of adult Dean.
