

Learn about Ladd Marsh at Third Tuesday

Event is hosted by the Union County Museum

Go! staff

UNION — The Union County Museum will host its next Third Tuesday event July 19 at 7 p.m.

Kyle Martin from the Ladd Marsh Wildlife Area will talk about the history of the wildlife area and the land it encompasses, artifacts found there from the time of the Oregon Trail migration, settlement era changes made to the Grande Ronde Valley and restoration of the marsh.

Third Tuesday events are held in the Little White Church, beside city hall and across Main Street from the museum in Union. The public is welcome, and admission is free.

For more information about the Ladd Marsh Wildlife Area, contact Kyle Martin at 541-963-4954.

The Third Tuesday event in August will be a presentation by Walt Brookshire about the historic buildings in Union. Watch for more information about the August presentation in a future issue of Go!
