Rock music will be provided by Frank Carlson of Baker City on Saturday from 10 a.m.–2 p.m., at which time raffle items will be awarded to winning ticket holders and trophies will be presented.

"Following the awards ceremony, car show participants leave Adams Avenue and take part in a Poker Cruise around the Grande Ronde Valley," Miesner said.

Then on Saturday from 7–10 p.m. the public is invited to a celebration marking M.J. Goss Motor Company's 100th anniversary.

"It will be held on our main car lot on the corner of Greenwood and Adams," said Mark Goss, president of the dealership. "We will have a live band called Ripple Effect from the Treasure Valley area. The lead singer is actually one of my service advisers."

The celebration will be like a street dance fair, but held on their car lot. Benchwarmers Pub and Grill will have their fair wagon down there, and the La Grande Sunrise Rotary Club will serve hamburgers and hot dogs. There is no charge to come to the celebration, but it is advised that you bring your own lawn chairs.

"We want to give back to the community," Goss said. "We're buying the band, so we just want people to come out and enjoy it. We'll have the car cruise going up and down Adams Avenue for a while with the car show, so we just want everyone to have a good time."

Many of the classic cars will be cruising Adams Avenue from 7–8:30 p.m. during the Cruise for Cash event in hopes of receiving one of the coveted Cruise Plaques from over 35 community businesses and individuals.

On Sunday, the car club members will finish the weekend with a coffee and donut get-together at Safeway's parking lot. Some of participants will join the car club members in a final cruise around the valley with a stop for lunch before heading home.

"So, if you are into classic cars, shopping and having a lot of fun, plan to be in La Grande on July 15 and 16," Miesner said. "You won't be disappointed."
