Maaka Pohatu

8 p.m. on PBS
The Green Planet

In the new episode "Desert Worlds," host David Attenborough looks at life in a hostile environment where temperatures soar every day and water is a scarce commodity. Despite that, some plants manage to find extraordinary ways to survive in these inhospitable surroundings. Still others bide their time in a botanical state of suspended animation, just waiting for eventual rain that will power an explosion of color across the dunes. Desert plants also have developed ingenious ways to protect their precious water reserves from animals as well as one another.

9 p.m. on CW
Wellington Paranormal

After shiny objects begin disappearing all over town — even including the glittering "W" from the city's iconic "Wellington" sign — Officers Minogue and O'Leary (Mike Minogue, Karen O'Leary) go looking for the culprit. At the top of their list of suspects: a strange half-bird, half-human creature (guest star Anika Moya). Maaka Pohatu and Tom Sainsbury also are featured in the Season 4 premiere episode "Bird Woman."

10 p.m. on FREE
grown-ish

Things start to get decidedly tense between Junior and Annika (Marcus Scribner, Justine Skye) when only one of them is tapped to join a secret society in the new episode "High Society." Meanwhile, Aaron (Trevor Jackson) thinks he may see some red flags after he discovers the university seems to be using his image more than they should to illustrate how "diverse and inclusive" the student body is.

10:30 p.m. on FREE
Everything's Trash

Jessie's (Nneka Okafor) mentor invites Phoebe (Phoebe Robinson) to be a guest speaker at his university in the new episode "Public Image Is Trash." Unfortunately, Phoebe senses an unusual side to the mentor and, as usual, starts to overthink the situation, which in turn leads her to second-guess the entire speaking engagement. Complications ensue. Moses Storm, Jordan Carlos and Tocarra Cash also are featured.
