

DAVID NELSON FEATURED AT TERRIFIC TUESDAY

PENDLETON — The next Terrific Tuesday event at Heritage Station Museum features David Nelson and his book "Mariah is Missing."

The evening starts at 6 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 23, at the museum, 108 SW Frazer Ave.

In his debut novel, Nelson reimagines the story behind a crime which occurred in 1974 while he served as the county attorney in Montana's Pondera County. He realized years later that this case had a long-lived ripple effect on many people, which prompted him to write this book.

In "Mariah Is Missing," Ana McGuire, a prosecuting attorney, must solve the disappearance of an attractive young school teacher who is reported missing from her Monday morning class, while navigating a male-dominated professional world of law and local politics.

Nelson has had a lifetime of memorable experiences as a lawyer, a wheat farmer, and an Oregon state senator. Now retired, he lives with his wife, Alice, and Boo, a Bolognese dog, in Pendleton.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR ALPENFEST

JOSEPH — Back after two pandemic years, Oregon's Alpenfest is looking for volunteers and asking for food and craft vendors to apply to sell at the Swiss-Bavarian cultural festival Sept. 29-Oct. 2.

Alpenfest, which is held in Joseph at the Joseph Rodeo Grounds, needs volunteers to pour beer and wine, provide kitchen and meal service and perform other duties. Each volunteer gets a free admission ticket and a bratwurst sandwich.

The 42nd edition of the festival will feature The Polkatones dance band, the Tirolean Dancers of Oregon, Swiss yodeler Shelby Imholt, accordionist Toby Hanson and alphorns.

To volunteer, contact Chuck Anderson at alpenmeister@mail2oregon.com or call 541-398-1096. Food and craft vendors may apply to Lynn Wolf at lakesidelynn@eoni.com or 503-692-5050.
