“Running with the Devil: The Wild World of John McAfee”

This feature-length documentary tells the story of software pioneer John McAfee, a larger-than-life figure who went on the run after his neighbor was murdered and took a film crew with him to record his flight from the authorities. The film offers up never before broadcast footage of his journey. (ORIGINAL)

“Selling the OC”

From the makers of “Selling Sunset” comes this unscripted series that also follows California real estate agents but moves the story south to Orange County, where the properties that are sold are uber-luxurious and sell in the tens and hundred of millions. The commissions can be life-changing and thus the competition among these well-dressed and well-coiffed realtors can be cutthroat. (ORIGINAL)

“Drive Hard: The Maloof Way”

Former race car driver Sammy Maloof and his family of racers and stunt drivers are front and center of this unscripted series, which follows them as they use their expertise in this world to build some of the most high-tech, powerful cars in the world for their racing and stunt driving clients.
