“Movie: Sonic the Hedgehog 2”

This 2022 sequel to the 2020 hit “Sonic the Hedgehog” picks up the animated adventure eight months after the first film, which ended with Sonic (voiced by Ben Schwartz) defeating the evil Dr. Robotnik (Jim Carrey). The new story follows Sonic in another fight with Robotnik, who has returned with a new villainous sidekick (Idris Elba). James Marsden and Tika Sumpter also star.

“Post Malone: Runaway”

Filmed pre-pandemic in September 2019, this documentary from first-time filmmaker Hector Dockrill captures the rapper born Austin Richard Post — aka Post Malone — in the midst of his 37-stop North American tour and includes exclusive backstage access, live performances, intimate interviews and a peek into the Grammy-nominated artist’s world. ## “Sprung”

Garret Dillahunt (“Fear the Walking Dead,” “Raising Hope”) stars in this comedy series as Jack, a convict just released from prison because of the pandemic, who must shelter in place with other former inmates and band together to use their criminal expertise for good. Kate Walsh, Clare Gillies and Martha Plimpton also star. (ORIGINAL)

“Movie: Mamma Mia!”

The musical inspired by the songs of ABBA makes for a very entertaining movie, enhanced by lovely Greek locations. Amanda Seyfried plays a young bride-to-be who wants to know her father’s identity before she walks down the aisle. Her mother (Meryl Streep) isn’t much help with that, so she invites the likeliest candidates (Pierce Brosnan, Colin Firth, Stellan Skarsgard) to the nuptials.
