

What's Available NOW On

“The Santa Clauses” (Nov. 16)

Tim Allen, Elizabeth Mitchell, Eric Lloyd and David Krumholtz reprise their roles from previous “Santa Clause” comedies for this holiday miniseries that catches up with Scott (Allen) as he’s coming to the realization that he can’t be Santa Claus forever and thus sets out to find a suitable replacement. Kal Penn and Laura San Giacomo also star. Peyton Manning makes an appearance as a possible successor. (ORIGINAL)

“Mickey: The Story of a Mouse” (Nov. 18)

From director Jeff Malmberg (“Marwencol”) comes this feature-length documentary that follows the story of the iconic character, from its creation by Walt Disney at a low point in his life to his constant evolution into different versions of himself that reflect both his creator’s remarkable career and dramatic societal shifts in the nation he came to represent. (ORIGINAL)

“Director by Night” (Available now)

This documentary chronicles the making of Marvel Studios’ “Werewolf by Night,” exploring first-time director Michael Giacchino’s vision, style and approach to bringing the chilling story to life, as well as offering an insider’s look at the between-the-scenes making of the action adventure special. (ORIGINAL)

“Gordon Ramsay: Uncharted Showdown” (Available now)

The chef, restaurateur and “Hell’s Kitchen” host faces off against U.K. star chefs Paul Ainsworth and Matt Waldron and goes head-to-head with his daughter Tilly in an epic culinary showdown in Costa Rica in the first season of this competition series from National Geographic.

triviaquiz

Time-tripping

BY JAY BOBBIN

Questions:

- 1) What was the title of the 1982-83 series with Jon-Erik Hexum and Meeno Peluce as time-traveling allies?
- 2) Which time-warp-affected title hero did Gil Gerard play in a 1979-81 series?
- 3) Name the late-night host who had a recurring comedy bit titled “In the Year 2000.”
- 4) Which star of the original “Planet of the Apes” movie also was in the 1974 series version as a different character?
- 5) Who played the two scientists who regularly ventured into the past and future in the mid-1960s adventure series “The Time Tunnel”?
- 6) Name Scott Bakula’s character who not only occupied different time periods, but also different people’s bodies and lives in the 1989-93 NBC series “Quantum Leap.”
- 7) What was the name of the 1966-67 sitcom that landed astronauts, played by Jack Mullaney and Frank Aletter, in the Stone Age?

- Answers:
- 1) “Voyagers”
 - 2) “Buck Rogers in the 25th Century”
 - 3) Conan O’Brien
 - 4) Roddy McDowall
 - 5) James Darren and Robert Colbert
 - 6) Dr. Sam Beckett
 - 7) “It’s About Time”