A Real Opportunity to Save Money

Everything is All Right
A correspondent at Myrtle Point says that "in spite of the fact that this country was especially hard hit by a combination of circumstances, including early fall rains and bad roads, destruction of a large part of the crops and the sudden slump in the cedar market, leaving many thousands of dollars' worth of split cedar on hand to be disposed of as best it could, the general tone of business is optimistic and hopeful." And well it might be, for this particular section of Oregon is rich in natural resources and is not lacking in men of courage and determination. By their efforts, even under depressing conditions, the sun again may be made to shine with a brilliancy that will drive away the gloom.—Daily News.

Real Punishment—"Perhaps the penalty for bootlegging is not severe enough."
"It isn't," replied Uncle Bill Bottletop. "A bootlegger ought to be made to drink his own liquor."—Washington Star.

Remember when renewing for the Sentinel that it costs only 15 cents more a year to get the Oregon Farmer, an excellent agricultural weekly, for a year.
