When Subscriptions Expire

The figures following the date of the month on your paper or label are for the year only. Thus "Jan. 23" means "January 23, 1922" and "April 23" means "April 23, 1922". The Sentinel has no expiration dates except on the first of some month. It carries so much time in bookkeeping to have only 12 expiration dates in the calendar, instead of three hundred and sixty-five that we are glad to give you one, two, or three free papers, if you will, to have it that way. Your subscription for the Sentinel, if it does not expire February first, will expire March first or on the first day of some succeeding month.

No Standing Timber Burned

Coos County had not five less in the standing timber during the year 1921 according to the annual report of Carl L. Davis, secretary of the Coos County Fire Patrol, made to the annual meeting of the association. Mr. Davis' report showed that all the losses were confined to fallen timber and logging equipment, the amount of damage being estimated at $50,000.

J. M. Thomas was re-elected chief fire warden and will devote all his time to the work. The amount of new trail and phone lines to be put in this year is made contingent on the spare time the wardens have this season.

The cost of the service last year totalled $10,678, including $3,600 which was expended for permanent betterments. This included the construction of seventeen miles of new telephone line and thirteen miles of new trail.—Coos Bay Times.

Story Very Inaccurate

The Coos Bay Times had a story last Friday about Dr. Hamilton of Coquille being arrested for driving an auto while drunk. The doctor was in Powers the day before but he had not had a drink nor was he arrested. His brother, C. W. Hamilton, of Myrtle Point, was arrested by Marshal Brown on the charge of drunkenness. Dr. V. L. Hamilton paid that $20 bail required and his brother was not in the cooler more than an hour instead of all night as the Times stated. Nor was he drunk, according to the local doctor. The story seems to have been a piece of spite work on the part of the Powers correspondent of the Times.

Bennett Can't Save Them

Representative Tom T. Bennett, of Marshfield, voted and spoke in opposition to the punch board bill which became a law this week. A dispatch quoted Mr. Bennett as follows: Representative Bennett, of Coos, made a strong plea for the defeat of the bill. Mr. Bennett held that punch boards formed an innocent amusement for the workmen of the state and that so far as he was concerned, he favored punch boards, "penny ante," or any other similar devices of amusement.

Will Meet With Mrs. Glaisyer

The Ladies of the Federated Missionary Society will give their monthly tea and program at the home of Mrs. W. V. Glaisyer next Thursday afternoon at 2:30. An unusually interesting program has been prepared. Patriotic numbers in keeping with the spirit of the hour will be interspersed with the regular missionary program. Amost cordial welcome is extended to all.

He Gets $500

Allan Nichols, who sustained a severe injury to his hand while at work in the Smith mill several months ago, has just returned from Salem where he made a tentative settlement with the State Accident Commission. In addition to meeting his expenses, he expects to receive about $500 damages.—Coos Bay Times.

From Portland to Eugene

An automobile truck line which has been in operation between Portland and Salem for the last three years will now extend its radius to Eugene. When the highway system now under construction is completed, we may expect to see freight trucks from Portland unloading goods at Coquille.

Has Moved to Frisco

In writing to renew her subscription for the Sentinel, Mrs. Mary A. Colebrook, formerly of this city, asks to be remembered to all her old friends in Coquille. She and her daughter have moved from Oakland to San Francisco and are pleased with the change.

Worth Preserving

It's a little late to speak of it now, but if you haven't destroyed last week's Sentinel it contains a couple of pages of county statistics that are well worth preserving; and incidentally the figures from which you can compile your 1920 taxes if you know your valuation.

Legion's Masquerade Ball

The American Legion and the Woman's Auxiliary will give a Masquerade Ball, Feb. 22 in Gould's Hall. Let all boost for the dance.

All mothers, wives and sisters, who are eligible, should try and be at the next Auxiliary meeting, March 1.

The First of the Season

The cyclone season has begun early. The town Ocone in Georgia with 500 people was wiped out yesterday, many people being reported killed. We, who live in Oregon, have more things to be thankful for than all of us realize.

That Personal Equation

In reviewing for the Sentinel a considerable percentage of subscription cards comes across before the expiration date. These are A1 subscribers, according to the classification that used to be in vogue for ships and steamers in our boyhood. There is another class which also is in time not to miss a paper and they are at least in the A1 class. Then there are others who renew some time during the month following the expiration and still others who come along after the paper has been cut off. The personal equation cuts a big figure in this matter as in everything else. Promptness or dilatoriness is largely a matter of inherited qualities. But the cash in advance plan seems to suit more than ninety-nine per cent of our subscribers, as it certainly does the publisher.

Armstrong Back in California

The Petaluma Courier recounts the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Armstrong in Petaluma, and says they are located on Prospect street. Mr. Armstrong, the Courier says, was a former resident of that city. For a number of years Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong were residents of Bandon, but they have resided at Gardiner during the past two years. He was one of Coos county's commissioners while residing at Bandon.

Price Cut in Two

A report from Kansas City in yesterday's dailies says the price of crude oil in the mid-continent field has dropped from $3.50 to $1.75 a barrel. That ought to mean a lower price for gasoline all over the country. We remember very distinctly, when about 25 years ago crude oil was selling there for 40 cents a barrel and the wildest dream of the operators was a dollar a barrel price.

Church of Christ Notes

It does us all good to visit the other churches once in a while and as Mr. and Mrs. Dallas will be in Corvallis over Sunday attending the Christian Endeavor Convention, he urges all members and friends of the Christian Church to worship at one of the several churches in town. Sunday School, Communion and Christian Endeavor at the usual hours.

Coquille Methodist Church

We had a fine day last Sunday; one hundred and twenty-seven in Sunday School. The attendance at other services was fine. Sixty at the Wednesday night prayer meeting is a gratifying sign.

Had Early Wedding Breakfast

Last Friday morning, Ruth McNary Smith, eldest daughter of Hon. I. S. Smith, of Marshfield, was married to R. E. Clark, of the firm of Lewis and Clark, (a combination of names that sounds very familiar in Oregon history.) The wedding took place at the home of the bride at 7 a. m., the ceremony being performed by Rev. W. S. Smith, of Bandon, and after a wedding breakfast at the Chandler hotel, the happy pair started for their Portland home on the morning train.

Meets Every Tuesday

The Circuit Court here has adopted the rule that every Tuesday shall be motion day, which is a boon for the attorneys who can thus have their motions considered with very little delay.
