Winchester Kitchen Knives

THESE KNIVES are designed for the woman in the kitchen, to be a general utility knife for cutting meats, bread and such services. In the kitchen a knife gets severe test of its wearing qualities and usefulness. Here's where the fine steel that goes into Winchester Cutlery will tell for you. The carefully designed handles and general appearance all combine to make it your knife.

PARKERSBURG GLEANINGS

Miss Genevieve Thompson, county school supervisor, visited our school Wednesday to give the pupils a test to determine their retentive faculties. The teacher reads a short story and the child writes it; these are sent to the U. of O. where the mentality of the pupils is graded.

The McLeod dredge did not begin the work of dredging Beaver Slough, the water being found too high to go to work there. It came back to the lower river where they are doing work repairing dykes for the farmers along the river here and at Randolph.

Richard Danielson has sold a portion of his place to a newcomer. We hope the purchaser will be pleased with our country and be a credit to it. Mrs. Tiller, of this place, who was operated on at Mercy hospital last fall for cancer of the stomach, is not so well as she has been since returning from the hospital.

Mrs. Alex McLeod, Miss Rose Philpott and Wm. Philpott have been on the sick list, but are now much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. McCoy Candill recently of Powers, have sold their home at that place, moving to Cushman, Nebraska, where they have leased a grain farm. Mrs. Candill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Tiller of this place, and spent all her life in this county, moving to Powers about five years ago, where Mr. Candill has been working in a logging camp. They report a mild winter in Nebraska, it being only fourteen degrees below zero.

Mrs. Smith, a full-blooded Klamath Indian, mother of Alfred Duke, died at Prosper and was buried at Two Mile last Sunday. Her exact age is not known. She was a sister of Mrs. Wengat Mecum, who died last fall, and has other relatives. She was quiet and industrious and respected by all who knew her.

Arrested for Intoxication

Chas. McGrath, who gave his address as Powers and who is reported to have been mixed up in the assault on Constable Brown some time ago, was arrested Saturday night by Officer Abner Tribbey on the charge of intoxication. He forfeited $15 bail.

Both the Boys and Girls' Basketball teams went to North Bend Friday afternoon to play games there. School was dismissed about an hour before train time and a large crowd of the students were at the train to see them off. The boys that played on the team were: Ellis Husli, captain and right forward; Clarence Carter, left forward; Percy Kertner, center; Claise Kalkner, right guard; Arval Haselwood, left guard; Claire Lehmonaki; Elton Schroeder, Bud Hagerty, subs; and W. F. Bingham, coach. The game played by them at North Bend resulted as a loss to them by a score of forty-three to nineteen. The floor that they played on was about one-half the size of the floor at the Oaks Pavilion. The Marshfield game played in the Armory was a loss to the Myrtle Point team by a score of ten to twenty-one. It is said that this is the closest score made by a visiting team played on that floor by the high school teams of the county. The Girls' team played North Bend high school Friday evening and were also defeated by a score of eleven to seventeen. Those playing on the Girls' team were: Marie Weekly, captain and left guard; Margaret Kelly, right guard; Marjorie Anderson, right forward; Pauline Driscoll, left forward; Mabel Hall, jumping center; Myrtle Hall running center; Itha Clinton and Ora Carter, subs; and Miss Lucille Carter, coach. The following people were over at the Bay from Myrtle Point: Mrs. C. C. Carter, Miss Helen Whitaker, Miss Gladys Carter, Miss Vivien Annin, Myrtle Clayton, R. A. Annin, Theron Kalkner and Mrs. Ora Warner. In spite of the fact that the teams were defeated at both places they came home ready to fight at the next game which will be at Coquille February 19th, where both girls and boys will play again.

McKeown Found Not Guilty

Ed McKeown, of Coquille, who was arrested a couple of weeks ago on the Coquille stage by Constable Goodman on the charge of intoxication was found not guilty by a jury in Justice Joehnk's court Wednesday afternoon. The jury was out but a short time. Ben S. Fisher prosecuted the case and John D. Goss defended him. The witnesses for the prosecution were Constable P. W. Goodman, Marshal Carter, Wm. Bridgman, Gordon Smith and Carl Walker. The witnesses for the defense were A. H. Powers, August Frizeen, Sumner Bryant, Arthur Chapman, W. U. Douglas, Dr. Geo. E. Dix, John Dashney and Ed McKeown himself. Most of them were character witnesses and gave Mr. McKeown high praise for his character during the many years they had known him.—Coos Bay Times.

Alien Enemy Property Sold

The first piece of alien enemy property in Coos county to be sold by the federal custodian, Francis P. Garvan, of Washington, D. C., was transferred in Bandon when through the agency of Chris Rasmussen the Geo. Walter place, containing two acres located just south of the city limits was transferred to Henry N. Brown. The place contains a house and barn. The sale price was $250. Walter is now a resident of Bandon.
