What Does YOUR Label Say?

Mrs. R. A. Annin, who has been attending the state convention for the Home Neighbors at Astoria for the past week, returned home Monday. In the contest between Oregon, Washington and Idaho for the largest number of members, Oregon won out.

Herman Glossop, of Marshfield, spent a few days in Myrtle Point the fore part of the week, visiting friends.

The Myrtle Point high school Girls' Basket Ball team played a game at Bridge Saturday night against the Bridge basket ball girls. The M. P. girls won by a score of eleven to two. The Bridge married men played against the Bridge high school boys also. The married men won by a score of 42 to 22. A very good crowd was in attendance. After the game the players on both teams were invited to E. E. Weekly's where a big chicken feed was greatly enjoyed by all. There were about thirty-five present.

Mrs. Alvin Neideigh and Miss Hilda Carter, of this city, spent Sunday and Monday in Coquille visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Luttrell, of Broadbent, were in town Friday visiting relatives. Elizabeth and Milton Luttrell, who are attending school in Myrtle Point, returned home with them to spend the week end.

Marie Weekly and Mabel Hall spent Sunday in Bridge visiting at the Ed. Weekly home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davis and family and Virgie Hauser, of Bridge, were in Myrtle Point Sunday afternoon.

Miss Helen Whitaker went to Coquille to spend Saturday visiting friends.

Dr. O. H. Clarke, of this city, made a business trip to Marshfield Monday.

Charles O. Jennings, of the Myrtle Point garage, spent a few days in Bandon this week and last demonstrating trucks.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chaney and children and Mrs. Ribble, of Coquille, were in Myrtle Point Tuesday on business.

Dr. H. D. Clarke, who has been visiting with his son, Dr. O. H. Clarke, here, started for his home in Fall River, Massachusetts, Monday morning. He expects to visit friends in Pasadena a few days and then continue east via Sunset Route. Dr. Clarke was very favorably impressed with Coos county but didn't like so much mud and rain. Since he got used to that he says now the climate is ideal and he expects to return next Fall and bring Mrs. Clarke with him to spend next winter. Dr. Clarke, senior, made many friends while with us, who regret his departure, but hope he returns as he now plans next fall.

R. A. Annin, of this city, made a business trip to Marshfield Wednesday.

Hugh Harlocker, of Coquille, was up Wednesday visiting his brother, Charles.

Mrs. Chas. Harlocker, of this city, is spending this week in Coquille visiting relatives and friends.

Claudia Parker, Itha Clinton, and Ora Carter, of this city, spent the week end in Bridge visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. C. H. Murphy and Mrs. Helen Billings, of Bridge, were in Myrtle Point on business Tuesday.

R. A. Cribbins, of Bridge was in Myrtle Point Friday.

Miss Vivien Anderson, of this city, gave a Sunday School party for her class at her home Tuesday evening. Games were played and dainty refreshments were served. There were about twenty-five present and every one spent a very enjoyable evening.

Chet Huling and Claud Giles, of Myrtle Point, were in Marshfield Monday to attend the Shine Club. They are anticipating a party for the club members and families here the first part of May.

Fred Magnusson, of Marshfield, was over here on business Monday. Mr. Magnusson is making plans for building a garage and service station here in Myrtle Point soon.

Mr. Stack, of Marshfield, who is working on the drive for more funds for the Salvation Army, was over here Tuesday.

Mrs. J. H. Myers and son, Mitchell, who have spent the winter in Sabetha, Kans., with Mr. Myers' mother, returned home Tuesday. Melba Myers also came over from Marshfield where she has been visiting for a few days.

East Fork Notes

J. J. Springfield came in from Roseburg last week with his motor truck. He fastened a tongue to it and had his horses hitched to it for power.

Walter Laird brought his wife home from the North Bend hospital Monday.

Tom Krewsen and Alex Anderson bought calves of Lee Mast.

E. P. Mast was a passenger on the stage bound for Brewster Valley to visit his daughter, Mrs. James Benham, Mr. Benham, grand children and great grand children. He puts in the most of his time helping out at his sister's place, Mrs. Harman's, on the North Fork below Lee. He says he has been working hard and will rest for a few days. He is only 73.

Julius Benham and Mrs. Julius were at Coquille last week and brought back a big load of freight.

The past week we have had lots of March weather in the shape of rains. There is lots of grass.

Digging up $5,000 for the Roseburg man may serve as a damper on Dr. Hall, of the Sutherland Sanitarium. That Sutherland Sanitarium must be a regular health resort for women.

North Dakota is a bright and shining example of being the whole thing—of going it alone. R. A. Easton.

Club Meets With Mrs. Jacobsen

The "Winter Nights' 500 club" was delightfully entertained on a recent Saturday evening by Mrs. F. J. Jacobsen. The rooms were tastefully decorated in green and yellow. An elaborate repast was served at midnight by the hostess. Card playing went merrily on till the wee sma' hours.

Mrs. W. E. Cross won high score, a beautiful painted dish, and Mrs. Geo. Gilman was consoled with a deck of cards.

Some time you are going to sleep and not wake up. That event may happen at the wrong time. Your boy, instead of going through college and growing up to be a man of affairs may be suddenly thrown into the army of unskilled labor.

And the little daughter may be denied the opportunity of a proper education and have to spend her beautiful years in unpleasant circumstances.
