

Women Love Jontell

They love the soft, powdered skin from the Far East, from the happy South, from many distant lands—the wonderful new odor of Jontell.

You, too, will love it. And you'll find just a touch of it in Face Powder Jontell—a powder of super fineness yet heavy enough to stay on.

You'll find it in Combination Cream Jontell, a cream that not only provides a perfect powder base, but which adds a delicate clearness to your complexion.

You'll find it in Talk Jontell, Soap Jontell and the many other delightful requisites that complete this famous toilet line.

MYRTLE POINT

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Strong and family left last week for Indiana where they will join her husband's family. They will both return this fall and take up their duties in the Myrtle Point schools.

Chas. Parson, of Bridge, was in this city on business Wednesday.

J. L. Strong and family left this week for a short camping trip.

Dumpey Powell, the famous sixteen-year old boy jockey, came up from Mexico to ride in the races in Myrtle Point during the celebration, but had the misfortune to be thrown from a horse and his right arm injured. He has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Shorby Hall, of this place. He leaves on this morning's train for his home in Oregon City.

Miss Clara Moser, who has been suffering from typhoid fever, is slightly improved at the present writing.

The internal injuries, which Mr. John Prosser received when struck by a log at the Schroeder & Aasen Lumber Mill, were so great that he died three days later. He was buried in the Myrtle Point cemetery on Tuesday. Mr. Prosser leaves a wife and two children and a host of sympathetic friends.

The beautiful floats which were sent (7) from the other cities of the county for the parade on the 4th of July were much appreciated by the citizens of Myrtle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mast arrived in Myrtle Point from their home in Mantague, Calif., on Wednesday. They came to attend Bert Clinton's funeral. Mrs. Mast is Mr. Clinton's sister.

Miss Violet MacLean, superintendent of the Myrtle Point Chautauqua, has arrived to assume her various duties. Come out and meet her. She is well worth your acquaintance.

Miss Elizabeth Letterell, of Broadbent, spent Monday and Tuesday visiting Itha Clinton.

Don't forget that Hon. Henry T. Rainey speaks on Monday night of Ellison-White Chautauqua week.

Miss Malba Myers has been quite ill this week but is much better at this writing.

Earl Clinton began clerking at the Hub store last week.

All aboard for Ellison-White Chautauqua! July 10-15 inclusive.

Miss Ora Carter spent Tuesday and Wednesday visiting at the T. G. Summerlin home at Gravel Ford.

Miss Teresa Clinton, of Coquille, spent Monday visiting her cousin, Itha Clinton, of this place.

Don't fail to attend Myrtle Point Ellison-White Chautauqua on Sunday and Monday next—the biggest days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Clinton and infant daughter, Vera, left Wednesday morning for Salem, where they will visit Mrs. Clinton's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Ison, near that city.

Don't forget that Chautauqua begins the 10th of July. Be sure and get your season ticket early.

T. G. Summerlin and family were in Myrtle Point on Monday of this week.

While picking blackberries near her home at Bridge, Mrs. Chas. Parker was stung by an insect and had to be brought to this place for medical attention at once. The sting was not very serious and Mrs. Parker is doing nicely.

Items From Arago.

The Brethren will preach at Arago Sunday at 10:30 a. m. All are invited to come and enjoy the service.

The little girls' sewing lessons are being continued through the summer at the home of Mrs. John Belloni every Wednesday afternoon. Ruby Robison was the first one to complete her first year's sewing. The class is doing some very neat work and the children should have every encouragement, for the needle is a necessity all through life.

Clara and Kenneth Bunn, of Myrtle Point, are enjoying their vacation at their aunt's, Mrs. R. M. Bunn.

Miss Lena Pinkston, of Gravel Ford, is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Robison, this week.

John Hickham and family are camping at Port Orford this week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Stevens, of North Bend, were visiting at the George Clinkenbeard home from Saturday until Tuesday. Mr. Stevens was very agreeably impressed with the view of this large and fertile valley.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Beckham and family went to Langlois to spend the Fourth with Len Paul and family.

Mrs. Frank Robison was very agreeably surprised Friday evening by the arrival of her sister, Mrs. Mattie Henderson Sharp, of Texas, who had been visiting her sons in Myrtle Point the past winter. The sisters had not met for 26 years. Mrs.

Many Picnics and Outings

Are spoiled by too much preparation. You are worn and before you start or too much time consumed in getting ready and not enough left for the outing.

Be Prepared To Go

On short notice. Don't tire yourself out beforehand with the fuss and worry of an old fashioned "Getting Ready."

Take Advantage of the Leisure Hours

In these times of rush and hurry it is difficult to get away for long at a time. Make use of the hours while the fine weather lasts.

July 5, L. J. Davison was appointed administrator of the estate of Alice A. Tilton, deceased, who left $400 in real property. The appraisers are L. S. Byron, Ralph Moore and B. E. McNames. The heirs are the late husband, J. S. Tilton, of San Diego, Cal.; Carl Tilton and Ross Tilton, sons, of the same place; and Ruby A. Tilton, daughter of Seaside, Ore.

July 7, C. R. Barrow filed a petition for the administration of the estate of Mark Morris, deceased.

Some time you are going to sleep and not wake up. That event may happen at the wrong time. Your boy, instead of going through college and growing up to be a man of affairs may be suddenly thrown into the army of unskilled labor.

And the little daughter may be denied the opportunity of a proper education and have to spend her beautiful years in unpleasant circumstances.
