A Curry Centenary

"Grandma" Lockwood, of Smith River, was tendered a reception at the community hall at that place in honor of the one hundredth anniversary of her birth on Thursday afternoon, June 16. Five generations were represented at the gathering, the centenary holding her great-grandchild on her lap and greatly enjoyed the occasion. The hall was decorated for the reception, a feature being the pretty spectacle of 100 lighted candles illuminating the inscription, "1821-1921."

Not Even a Cow Trail

Geo. Erdman has returned from a motor trip to Eugene. He says the old Coos Bay wagon road is not even a cow trail, it's a crime. Mr. Erdman says that when the new road is finished between Myrtle Point and Roseburg Coos county will get more tourists than we have ever dreamed of before. Hundreds of tourist cars are passing up and down the Pacific highway every day at this time of the year. Just before reaching Eugene Mr. Erdman was delayed about two hours by construction work that is in progress there. During that time he counted 72 tourist cars held up at that point alone. He ventures to say that at least half of the travel would come to the coast were the new road completed.—Bandon World.
