Very serviceable Sports Hats in Gingham and Pique—$1.00—just the thing for camping and at the beach. Also splendid line of Felt and Silk Hats. They are chic. Mrs. Bonnie Walker's Millinery Store.

Jaa. A. Hatcher was in town last Friday in disguise. He said he had just returned from Coos Bay where the wind had swept his face as clean as a white sheet as though it had been done with a razor.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Catton have moved from Schroeder & Assen's mill at Norway to Marshfield, he having accepted a position with the Union Oil Co. Mrs. Catton was over here Wednesday visiting friends.

N. J. Magill brought in an egg last Saturday to enter in the largest egg competition. It measured six and one-half inches around the short way and eight inches the long way. It was laid by a Plymouth Rock.

Word received from Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Young indicates that they reached their destination, Riverhead, Long Island, last Wednesday, after a leisurely trip across the continent stopping at Portland, Tacoma and a day's trip to Mt. Ranier, Vancouver, B. C., Lake Louise and Banff, Canada. They were enjoying the trip immensely.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Von Pegert came up from Langlois last week in order that he might consult a physician. Mrs. Von Pegert returned to the ranch at Langlois Wednesday, but Fred is remaining a few days longer.

Little Gretchen Neal celebrated her fourth birthday last Saturday with a party to which twenty-two of her little friends were invited. Tables were set on the lawn and the young people enjoyed a most pleasant afternoon and tempting supper.

Henry Sengstacken is having a pile of rock dumped on the lot just north of his building across the street from this office, which we understand is to be used for building a vault. Whether this means a new building or not we have not been informed.

Dr. Walker and Howard Tourtellott, of Lindsay, Calif., came up from there last Monday on their vacation trip and to see their half brother, Geo. A. Gould, who has recently undergone two operations at the Richmond hospital. The latter is improving now.

The Abd-Uhl-Ataf patrol band from Hood River drove over from Marshfield to Coquille Wednesday afternoon and gave us a short concert. With their brilliantly colored uniforms they presented a very pretty picture and their music was enjoyed.

Arthur L. Hooton got home Monday afternoon from the officers' training school in Virginia where he had been since the close of the school year at O. A. C. He was present a week ago Tuesday when Gen. Pershing presented four commissions to young men who had just graduated from college.

Robert Ross, a brother of John E. Ross, of this city, and who visited here several months last winter, is now playing solo clarinet with Sousa's band which is on an eight months' tour of the United States, Canada, Mexico and South America. They will be in Portland some time this fall. This is Sousa's farewell tour.

Former superintendent of city schools, Eugene H. Baker, has been elected superintendent of the Brewsterville schools for the coming year. Mr. Baker and his family have been staying at Albany this summer.

Wick Johnson and Bert Polson and their families started in the former's auto Monday morning for Bandon, to spend a week in the Queen Anne cottages on the beach. They got as far as the ferry here when something went wrong with the car and they had to be towed back up town. They had better luck that evening and as they haven't been seen here since, it is supposed they reached their destination.

Mrs. S. A. Ribbie, who has been spending the last two years with her daughter, Mrs. G. H. Chaney, left Tuesday morning for a three months' visit with her sons in New Jersey. She will make the trip in a leisurely manner, going by way of Canada and stopping over at various points of interest as her fancy dictates. While in the East she will make her headquarters at the home of Dr. R. D. Ribbie, at Mountain Lakes, New Jersey.

Have Your Roof Repaired
E. A. Corbell, of the Coos Bay Roofing and Supply Co., is repairing roofs on several buildings here and next week will be at work on the roof of the frame section of the court house. Anyone desiring the roof of any house or building made waterproof and fire proof against sparks or ignition from above should see him and get his price. Sand-coated, heavy tar paper, put on over the shingles, is the way most of his work has been done here. Mr. Corbell is a good workman and his jobs stand the test of winter rains. A card addressed to him here or at Marshfield will reach him. And now is the time to have roofs repaired.

McNeil Case Dismissed
After investigating the charge preferred by Mrs. Willie Orr against Jaa. McNeil for assault and battery, City Attorney Stanley ordered the case dismissed. He found that the money in question belonged to Mr. McNeil and that the latter did not strike Mrs. Orr but that he was endeavoring to recover his property and that she fell when trying to escape. As Mr. McNeil was entirely within his rights in trying to protect his property, and had not used violence, there was nothing to do but dismiss the case.

Getting Ready for Convention
At a meeting of the Marshfield lodge of Elks Wednesday evening plans were made for three big meetings to be held to enlist the full cooperation of every member in arranging for the state convention. One night will be at North Bend when plans for the North Bend features of the convention will be taken up. Another will be Coquille valley night and the third a general rally. Exalted Ruler Bus is taking this as a means of getting fuller support for the general committee—Coos Bay Times.

Tama, beaded and plain, different sizes, pretty colors—you can't help being delighted with the Tama offered at Mrs. Bonnie Walker's Millinery Store.

MONEY! MONEY! At once the greatest benefactor and greatest evil in the world. See the "MONEY CHANGERS" at the Liberty August 2 and 3. The program is on page three.

Guy Kelley Home
Guy M. Kelley, after four and one-half years in Uncle Sam's Navy, returned to Coquille last Saturday, having been mustered out of the service last week at San Francisco. Since the war ended Guy has been stationed mostly in Asiatic waters and has spent considerable time in China, Russia, the Philippines and at Honolulu. He says he is through as a seaman for the present at least and will probably remain in the vicinity of Coquille.

County Buys Tax Titles
Most of the property sold for the 1914 delinquent taxes by Sheriff Ellingsen at the court house last Saturday was bid in by the county for the amount of the tax. Only a small crowd was in attendance and very few bids were made by others than the county.

Important Notice
The American Auxiliary wishes all members to be present at our next meeting, Tuesday, August 2, at the Getapell. This meeting is very important.

Ida F. Outing, Secy.

Fire Damaged
The damage was done from fire on Monday evening. The cause he has no idea how the fire started in his barn last Friday, when it was spontaneously combusted, as there was no one in the barn at the time or for some time preceding the fire. Fortunately all the stock was out in the pasture. The $1,000 insurance he had would not begin to replace the implements, tools, grain, hay, barn, etc., which were a total loss.

SPOILED HIS "GOOD THING"
Youthful Financier Was Doing Splendidly Until His Mother Butted Into the Game.

"It's sure tough when a feller has business ability and is cleaning up money right and left and then his mother goes and spoils it all," said Tommy mournfully. "Why, I was making more money than any kid on the block."

"Well, how did you make your money and why did your mother make you quit?" the boy was asked.

"The fella around here never used to have any place to play marbles until I thought of my back yard," Tommy replied. "I used to charge them three cents to come into my yard and play. It really was worth the money, because in my place they had all the room they wanted and, besides, they would never get chased by the cop. At last I got about 30 to 50 customers a day and my mother said she wouldn't let me run my business any more because the kids made too much noise."

The Perils in a Kiss
"As for Elodie—what did a kiss of two matter? If one paid all that attention to a kiss one's life would be a complicated drama of a hundred threads. A kiss is nothing—so ran one of her oratorical diatribes—unless you feel it in your toes. Then look out."

"A kiss must mean either very much or very little. There are madmen to whom it signifies a life's consecration. There are men whose blood it fires with burning passion. There are couples of different sex who jointly consider their first kiss a matter of supreme importance, and the temporary rapture over, at once begin to discuss the possibilities of parental approbation and the ways and means of matrimony. A kiss may be the very devil of a thing, leading to two or three dozen honorably born grandchildren, or to suicide, or to celibate addiction to cats, or to the fate of Aelard, or to the Fall of Troy."

Volunteers could be written up to it.—From "The Mountebank" by W. J. Locke.

The Modern Maric
Mayor Moore of Philadelphia, being congratulated on the success of his administration, laughed and observed: "Good workmen are always modest about their work. A lady once said gushingly to Mark Twain:

"I guess, being such a grand writer as you are, you're awfully fond of books, aren't you?"

"Well, that depends," drawled the humorist. "If a book has a leather cover it has magnificent value as a razor strop. A brief, concise work, such as the French write, is very useful to put under the short leg of a wabby table. Large, old-fashioned books with clasps can't be beat as missiles to hurt at dogs and cats. A large book, like a geography, is nearly as good as a piece of tin to nail over a broken window pane."

See Ice Age
A succession of such eruptions as that of the Mount Katmai volcano eruption in Alaska in June, 1912, would plunge the earth into another ice age by reducing the sun's temperature to a low degree on earth. Dr. Robert E. Griggs said before the American Association for Advancement of Science at a general session in an address one night. Doctor Griggs headed the national geographie expedition to Mount Katmai.

Last Battles.
The actual last battle fought in England was that of Sedgemoor, fought on July 6, 1685, between the insurgents, led by the duke of Monmouth, and the troops of King James II, Monmouth's force being cut to pieces. The last battle fought in Great Britain was that of Culloden, six miles from Inverness, Scotland, fought on April 16, 1746, between the followers of Prince Charlie, the Stuart pretender and the forces of the crown, led by the duke of Cumberland. The latter won.

To Test Metal Airplane.
Difference of opinion over the reliability and strength of the all-metal airplane has caused the British government to purchase one for the purpose of testing it to destruction. The machine selected is built of duralumin, supposedly as strong as steel and very light. Engineers will put weights on parts of the wings and fuselage where they know there is great strain in flight, and will add to the weight until the portion they are testing collapses. By this method they can reckon to a nicety the resisting power of the metal frame.

When She Drove the Limb.
A Milwaukee woman who died at one hundred and eighty-one was a pilot, figure skater and circus rider. She was as far as we can learn the only woman who, besides her own husband, was a pilot, figure skater and circus rider. She was a pilot, figure skater and circus rider.
