Coos & Curry County Fair

Elsewhere in this issue appears an advertisement for the Coos and Curry Fair at Mystle Point Sept. 13 to 17 inclusive. A larger and better fair is promised by the fair officials this year than ever before. Special efforts have been made to arouse interest throughout all sections of both counties and will be made right up to the opening day of the fair. The premium list has been revised and extended to a considerable extent and special attractions have been and are being booked which will make it well worth the while of everyone to attend the fair. At least one, and probably several of the winning horses from the recent track meets in British Columbia, the largest on the western the recent track meets in British Col-umbia, the largest on the western coast will be present during the fair, and run in the races. One of these horses, Ehner K., was bred and rais-ed within a few miles of Myrtle Point and recently set a new record against time on the Hasting track in British Columbia and has been first under the wire five time out of five starts, against the stable of over $50 horses.
